TAX ELECTION TACTICS CRITICIZED

Jury Raps Tam School Officials

The Marin County Grand Jury today censured Tamalpais Union High School District officials for propagandizing students and using school equipment to push for a tax limit increase last February.

The grand jury report, signed by foreman Oliver J. Olson Jr. and secretary George W. Thierbach, declares the school officials acted improperly and "in violation of the laws of the State of California which prohibit the use of school funds or equipment for political purposes and which prohibit the solicitation of students to work for any organization not directly under the control of the school authorities."

Chester G. Carlisle, superintendent of the high school district, termed the grand jury's statements "unfortunate."

He declared: "This is most unfortunate, inasmuch as the people involved in the tax election put in many hours and went to no length of pains to make sure nothing illegal, immoral and unethical was done in presenting the issue to the public.

"As to use of school facilities, the opposition was repeatedly offered the use of the same facilities."

After the tax increase was voted down last Feb. 17, opponents — particularly Tom McDougall of Mill Valley—charged the school authorities with improprieties and irregularities.

The grand jurors found that some of the allegations were untrue. But the following charges are true, said the grand jury:

"Equipment belonging to and personnel paid by the Tamalpais Union High School District were utilized in mimeographing, printing and otherwise preparing literature of a political nature containing propaganda urging a 'yes' vote on the tax election of Feb. 17, 1959.

"Officials of the school district, during school hours and on school premises, propagandized students in favor of a 'yes' vote and failed to prevent the solicitation and coercion of students during school hours and on school premises by the proponents of the school tax increase."

The grand jury alleges that the conduct of the school officials is contrary to the spirit of the laws under which public schools are conducted.

"The most fundamental principles of American democracy are opposed to the political indoctrination of school students by their teachers or by school officials," the grand jury's report declared.

"The grand jury of Marin County heretofore takes this means of expressing its disapproval of the type of conduct on the part of school administrators which is hereinabove referred to and of expressing its censure of all those who are engaged therein, or who are responsible for such conduct."

The report contained no recommendation for any legal action against the school district.

Savings-Loan Firm To Pay Higher Interest

Other Concerns Here Expected To Follow Lead

A new interest rate of 4½ per cent on savings deposits was announced today by Marin County Savings and Loan Assn., effective Jan. 1.

Similar announcements are expected within the next few days from the three other savings and loan associations in Marin County.

Fred F. Enemark, executive vice president and manager of Marin County Savings and Loan, spoke for his institution after announcement that the 4½ per cent rate had been adopted by four Northern California companies, with others prepared to follow and Los Angeles companies solidly committed.

DIRECTORS MEET

Directors' meetings were held Tuesday by both Ross Valley Savings and Loan and Sausalito Savings and Loan, but the question of rate was held open.

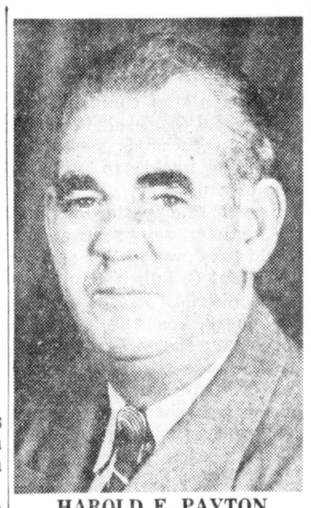
Further meetings are expected almost immediately, although Dec. 22 was the tentative date set for its next meeting by the Sausalito institution.

The fourth Marin County firm, Northwestern Savings and Loan Assn., indicated that it will hold to its scheduled meeting next Monday.

WOULD GO ALONG

Executives of all the Marin companies at luncheon yesterday agreed they'd have to go along together on the 4½ per cent level if San Francisco went to it.

At the same time the decision for 4½ per cent was being made by Pioneer Investors Savings and Loan, Home Mutual Savings and Loan, Berkeley Savings and Loan and Home Federal Savings and Loan in San Francisco.



HAROLD E. PAYTON
First in race

1st Candidate Announces For Assembly Seat

Harold E. Payton, 54, former deputy assessor for 12 years under George W. Hall, announced today he will run for the post of state assemblyman on the Democratic ticket.

Payton was the first to announce for the office.

Another Democrat prominently mentioned as a candidate is attorney Joseph G. Wilson. On the Republican side, attorney William T. Bagley is interested in the post.

Richard H. McCollister, the Republican incumbent, has announced he will not seek reelection and has moved his residence to Sacramento County.

Payton lives at 4 Glen avenue in San Anselmo. He served under Assessor Hall until Hall was defeated last year. Payton is past president of the California State Firemen's Assn., and the Redwood Empire Firemen's Assn. Last year, he was president of the Marin County Heart Assn.

He is a member of the Fairfax Native Sons, San Rafael Redmen, San Rafael Eagles, and Fairfax Lions Club. Since his retirement from the assessor's office in November of 1958, he has been selling life insurance.

Ike Urges World War On Hunger

Opens U.S. Pavilion At New Delhi Fair

NEW DELHI, India (UPI)—President Eisenhower today proposed a world war on hunger under the banner "food for peace."

Opening the U. S. pavilion at the World Agricultural Fair, in this nation where millions starve, the President quoted the theme of the American exhibit: "Food-family-friendship-freedom."

"Here are four words that are mightier than arms and bombs, mightier than machines and money, mightier than any empire that ruled the past or threatens the future," the President told a crowd of 60,000 who have known famine and the sight of mobs screaming for food.

"There are four words that can lift the souls of men . . ."

It was the President's third speech of the day on his four-day visit to neutral India. His visit ends Monday. His voice seemed hoarse during the day, but White House physician Maj. Gen. Howard Snyder said the 69-year-old President was standing up "really well" under the tremendous pressure of his 12 to 18-hour daily schedules.

For the third day, hundreds of thousands of Indians came out to cheer the "king of America" and to throw so many flowers he had to ward them off with his hands.

Eisenhower threw off his hoarseness as he read his prepared speech after snipping the ribbon to the American fair pavilion with golden shears.

He urged all nations to declare "a successful worldwide war against hunger."

The United States, he said, would cooperate with other countries as it has done with India to provide farm surpluses as "food for peace" in this "noble war" to benefit mankind.

Touring the American exhibit he saw modern farm equipment and technique demonstrations. Eyeing an automatic milker, he was reminded of his farm in Pennsylvania.

"I could use that at Gettysburg," he said.

The President said in his formal speech that he was born in farmland and, "I plan to be a farmer when my present occupation comes to a close."

RAIN FORECAST FOR N. STATE, BUT NOT HERE

Clear weather was forecast today for the Bay Area tonight and tomorrow, with rain apparently still far off.

The Weather Bureau said there would be a little rain in the extreme north but it was unlikely in the central third of the state.

Storm systems continued to move across the north Pacific into the Gulf of Alaska and Western Canada, but only the southern fringe of the fronts trailed across California's extreme north.

Low temperatures this morning: Woodacre, 36; San Rafael, 44; Tamalpais Valley, 46; Novato, 41.

Novato Council Candidate Quits Race

H. Randall Bechtel today withdrew as a candidate for Novato City Council and announced that he was throwing his support to Sidney Hammill.

Bechtel's withdrawal leaves 26 candidates seeking five city council positions in the Jan. 12 election which will also decide on Novato's incorporation.

"Hammill and I live in the same area," Bechtel said. "Rather than hopelessly split the vote in our neighborhood. I feel I should get out of the race and urge election of Hammill."

Bechtel, an insurance man, lives at 1432 Dawes street. Hammill, an accountant, lives at 1419 Dawes street.

The remaining candidates continued to campaign, however, with more than 50 persons last night listening to four of them speak at Marion school.

Stating their views on cityhood and answering questions at the second of several scheduled "candidates' nights" were Charles S. Adkins, Robert J. Mautner, William Loewen and F. J. Picchi.

Urging increased attendance at the candidates nights meetings and participation of Novatans in the campaign, Adkins, a surveyor, said: "We are

Stores Open Late As Yule Shopping Season Hits Peak

With the Christmas shopping season definitely at flood tide, virtually all stores in San Rafael, Corte Madera Center, Novato and San Anselmo will be open until 9 o'clock tonight.

Many San Rafael stores began staying open until 9 a.m. daily on Monday. The remainder will start the late daily hours next Monday, said Richard L. Shirley, San Rafael Chamber of Commerce manager.

College Board Overrules Committee, Accepts Young Korean As Student

Ik Su Kim of the Republic of Korea will be permitted to enroll at the College of Marin in February despite a scholarship committee recommendation that his application be denied.

In overruling the committee last night, college trustees voiced consternation at some of its rules governing the admittance of foreign students.

Under the rules, foreigners (1) may not enroll at mid-year, (2) must be eligible to enter the University of California, (3) must take an English language test, results of which are evaluated at the University of Michigan, (4) must have completed the equivalent of California high school graduation requirements, (5) must not be more than 25 years old, and (6) must have no visa other than a student visa.

The 25-year-old Ik Su Kim would have been ruled out by the first four requirements if the board hadn't made an exception in his case. He is now serving in the Korean navy as an electronics instructor.

He returned to Korea this year after completing a leadership training course at San Diego Naval Training Center with a mark of 86, above average for U.S. servicemen, and an electronics course at Treasure Island with a mark of 82.

Officers at both schools gave him warm recommendations in writing and reported his command of English is above average.

PLEA FOR ADMISSION

A plea for his admission to the college was made last night by Harry J. Mack of San Anselmo, member of the Bay Area American-Korean Student Sponsorship Committee.

As the Korean's sponsor, Mack will provide him with room and board, plus a monthly stipend of $25, in exchange for 80 hours of help around the house each month.

Board Chairman Rupert E. Kempf said he could not understand "why we should exclude this exceedingly capable person from having an education on our campus."

'SHOULD FOSTER IT'

"In accepting foreign students," he added, "we should accomplish something for world understanding, and I think we should foster it rather than make it more prohibitive for a foreign student to enter this institution."

Asked his opinion, college President Ward H. Austin recommended the scholarship committee be overruled. Committee chairman is vice president Paul Clymer.

The vote to admit Ik, on motion of trustee Elizabeth M. Deedy, was 3-0. Trustees George G. Washburn and Robert E. Oliver were absent.

21-ACRE SITE ACQUIRED

N. San Rafael Shop Center Work Readied

Construction of a more than two-million-dollar shopping center in northern San Rafael is expected to be under way next month, Jerome C. Draper Jr. of San Francisco, president of the Draper Companies, said today.

Sale of a 21-acre site at the southwest intersection of Manual Freitas parkway and Highway 101 by the Freitas estate to Draper was announced. Draper said a tentative map of Northgate Shopping Center has been completed and the final map is virtually ready to be filed for approval by the City of San Rafael.

Draper said construction is expected to start soon after approval, "probably right after the first of the month."

Development will be a joint venture by three Draper firms —Draper Land Co., Draper Centers Inc. and Draper Shopping Centers Inc.

The site is part of the Freitas home ranch now under subdivision.

Both buyer and seller were represented in the sale by Coldwell Banker and Co.

U. N. APPROVAL SOUGHT

U.S., Russia Agree On Body For Space Peace

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) —The United States and the Soviet Union agreed today on a plan for setting up a United Nations body to cooperate in the peace uses of outer space.

The final agreement was reached by U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge and Vasily V. Kuznetsov, Soviet deputy foreign minister, after several weeks of private negotiations.

The plan will be laid before the U.N. Political Committee for quick action before the General Assembly ends its 1959 session tomorrow.

The proposal would create a 24-nation committee to study outer space cooperation and coordinate its exploration for peaceful purposes.

The agreement broke a deadlock which began last year when the U.N. set up a temporary committee of 18 nations. This was boycotted by the Soviet Union because of its composition.

The proposed body would give Communist and uncommitted nations a larger representation. It would consist of 12 Western nations, seven Communist and five neutral. The temporary body had 12 Western, three Communist and three neutral.

Kuznetsov confirmed agreement had been reached. He said a resolution, sponsored by the United States, the Soviet Union and other countries, would be submitted later today.

Negotiations Called Off To Permit Try For Aluminum Industry Pact

WASHINGTON (AP) — Steel labor talks have been sidetracked temporarily to let union negotiators try for an aluminum industry agreement. A contract there could influence the steel situation.

The government yesterday called off the steel talks it has been sponsoring. Director Joseph F. Finnegan of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service said the bargaining wasn't making any progress despite stepped-up efforts after President Eisenhower's latest appeal.

No time was fixed for their resumption. Asked whether it would be a matter of days or weeks, Finnegan replied "it won't be a matter of weeks, I'm sure."

Finnegan noted the United Steelworkers Union recently concluded a labor peace pact with major can manufacturers and are negotiating with the top aluminum producers—Alcoa, Reynolds and Kaiser.

The aluminum talks have just resumed in Chicago, ahead of a Jan. 1 strike deadline. David J. McDonald, Steelworkers Union president, had planned to join the aluminum talks even if steel negotiations had continued.

"There is no point holding steel meetings without the key people," Finnegan told newsmen.

"It is to be hoped that when we resume our mediation sessions in the steel dispute, a settlement area will emerge which will make it easier for the parties to reconcile their present differences."

However, the steel talks were called off exactly one week after Eisenhower called for round-the-clock steel bargaining.

Officials obviously were hopeful for an aluminum settlement.

McDonald wrote to 95 steel firms yesterday asking for individual company-union bargaining, saying the industry wide meetings have been "totally unproductive."

R. Conrad Cooper, chief industry negotiator, had no immediate comment on McDonald's call for individual company bargaining. On this point Finnegan said regardless of any company bargaining the industrywide talks would continue.

Aged Having Hard Time, Solons Told

DETROIT (UPI)—Senate subcommittee hearings that started last June on the problems of the aged and aging ended here today in a city of hard-core unemployment.

Investigators were seeking information to answer the problem of how those in their "golden years" can grow old with peace of mind, security and dignity.

Sen. Patrick McNamara (D-Mich.), chairman of the subcommittee, and others in his group for the past two days have heard disheartening stories from Detroit and state officials, businessmen, medical authorities, and senior citizens on the problems of the aged.

This city, hard hit because of decentralization of the auto industry, has 38,000 persons over 45 out of work, according to Mayor Louis C. Miriani.

"These people are healthy and capable," Miriani said. "Half of them are skilled workers. They must be protected for the benefit of their families."

He urged that state and federal governments cooperate more with large cities to improve social security and health benefits for older people.

John C. Calhoun resigned as vice president of the United States after he was elected to the senate in 1832.

More U.S. Technicians Needed, Says Expert

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — With all the stress on higher education, the United States is falling behind in producing skilled technicians, says one of the nation's top employment experts.

Dr. Louis Levine of Washington, D.C., deputy director of the U.S. Bureau of Employment Security, brought up the warning yesterday at the final session of a three-day manpower conference called here by the federal government.

Levine said current stress on developing engineers and scientists has sometimes minimized the increasing need for greater numbers of highly skilled technicians to carry out the programs of the scientists and engineers.

He described technicians as "the non-college men who should get their training in high schools, junior college and technical schools to operate the complicated machines of today."

Levine added, "There's a happy-go-lucky wastefulness in training. Skills are mostly acquired through accident. There is little reliance on efficient apprentice training programs.

"The nation can't afford to go on this way much longer."

Levine said technical training should be opened to everyone interested—women, the semi-retired, the handicapped and persons of all races and backgrounds.

"We can no longer afford prejudice," he said.

Choir Director Robert J. Greenwood said several groups have offered financial help for the Feb. 18 trip, but choir members elected to raise their own funds by selling the wreaths.

Greenwood said the choir is the only Marin County group invited to participate in the Olympics' musical program, being arranged by members of Walt Disney's staff.

"If all goes well with the wreath sales," Greenwood said, "we should raise approximately $700 to finance lunches and the cost of bus transportation. Our goal is 1,000 wreaths by Dec. 18.

Negotiations Called Off To Permit Try For Aluminum Industry Pact

WASHINGTON (AP) — Steel labor talks have been sidetracked temporarily to let union negotiators try for an aluminum industry agreement. A contract there could influence the steel situation.

The government yesterday called off the steel talks it has been sponsoring. Director Joseph F. Finnegan of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service said the bargaining wasn't making any progress despite stepped-up efforts after President Eisenhower's latest appeal.

No time was fixed for their resumption. Asked whether it would be a matter of days or weeks, Finnegan replied "it won't be a matter of weeks, I'm sure."

Finnegan noted the United Steelworkers Union recently concluded a labor peace pact with major can manufacturers and are negotiating with the top aluminum producers—Alcoa, Reynolds and Kaiser.

The aluminum talks have just resumed in Chicago, ahead of a Jan. 1 strike deadline. David J. McDonald, Steelworkers Union president, had planned to join the aluminum talks even if steel negotiations had continued.

"There is no point holding steel meetings without the key people," Finnegan told newsmen.

"It is to be hoped that when we resume our mediation sessions in the steel dispute, a settlement area will emerge which will make it easier for the parties to reconcile their present differences."

However, the steel talks were called off exactly one week after Eisenhower called for round-the-clock steel bargaining.

Officials obviously were hopeful for an aluminum settlement.

McDonald wrote to 95 steel firms yesterday asking for individual company-union bargaining, saying the industry wide meetings have been "totally unproductive."

R. Conrad Cooper, chief industry negotiator, had no immediate comment on McDonald's call for individual company bargaining. On this point Finnegan said regardless of any company bargaining the industrywide talks would continue.

Troops Called Out In Strike Violence

ALBERT LEA, Minn. (AP)—National Guardsmen with fixed bayonets dispersed a jeering crowd of several hundred persons at the strike-torn Wilson Packing Co. plant today to back up Gov. Orville Freeman's declaration of martial law in Freeborn County.

The crowd was apparently hooting not at the soldiers but at non-union production workers whom the guardsmen turned away from the Wilson gates as they reported for work this morning.

The guard, moving swiftly after the governor's call to maintain law and order, shut down the Wilson plant to all but non-union supervisory and clerical workers.

The production workers, hired by Wilson to replace striking union workmen, showed up in numbers today apparently before they got word the troops were called out and the plant shut down.

A detachment of 80 guardsmen arrived at the plant on the edge of this southern Minnesota city of 13,500 shortly before daybreak.

They formed two groups on either side of the main plant entrance.

Col. Paul V. Meyer of Mankato read an order which said no more than three persons could gather in any group in the immediate packing plant area, and no more than 50 in downtown Albert Lea and across the highway from the plant itself.

Two days of violence at the giant packing plant were touched off Wednesday night when a thousand massed pickets blocked non-union workers from leaving the plant, overturned cars and hurled rocks. Three or four persons received minor injuries.

Yesterday the non-union workmen Wilson has been using ran through a rain of rocks both going to work in the morning and going home at night.

Mayor Niles Shoff of Albert Lea and County Atty. O. Russell Olson then appealed to the governor for troops.

The striking United Packinghouse Workers Union has been without a contract at Wilson since Sept. 1. Wilson broke off negotiations Oct. 29 when union workers refused to work a nine-hour day.

Two weeks ago Wilson warned union employees they would be replaced if they did not return to work. On Nov. 30 Wilson began production with non-union help.

U.S. Places Sales Ban On Tainted Fowl

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government, using a don't-get-excited approach, has announced a ban on sales of poultry fattened with a hormone which can cause cancer.

The hormone is called diethylstilbestrol, or stilbestrol.

Its use in fattening poultry is being discontinued, and birds already grown with its use are being voluntarily taken off the market, it was announced.

But with last month's cranberry scare still echoing, officials gave these added assurances to housewives about stilbestrol-treated poultry:

If you have a chicken in the refrigerator, feel safe to use it if the skin, liver and kidneys are discarded. No residue of the synthetic hormone has been found in the white or dark meat.

Secretary of Welfare Arthur S. Flemming told a news conference yesterday of the voluntary program.

He said authorized manufacturers of stilbestrol for use in poultry have agreed to suspend its sale immediately. The poultry and retail food industries have been asked to arrange for an immediate halt to the sale of stilbestrol-treated birds.

The hormone has been used in only about 1 per cent of the poultry grown in the United States—mostly in birds sold in the New York City and Los Angeles markets.

Foley, father-in-law of singer Pat Boone, denied the charge. He probably will not be arraigned until March, when the next federal court term begins.

GOP Leaders Pick Battle Cry For 1960

CHICAGO (UPI)—The Republican National Committee has picked "peace and prosperity with freedom and justice" as its tentative battle cry for 1960.

"We haven't adopted it officially," Jaren Jones of Salt Lake City, vice-chairman of committee for arranging the 1960 presidential convention here, said yesterday. "We're going to kick it around a little, but there was no other motto presented for consideration."

Jones told reporters the committee, which is meeting in a three-day convention-planning conclave, dropped "progress" from the 1956 slogan of "peace, prosperity and progress" because prosperity implies progress.

'DEVIL THEORY' HIT

U.N. Occasion Talks Stress Human Rights

Human rights were spotlighted last night at College of Marin.

A minister from San Francisco cited a decline of respect for reason and rights as impediments blocking potential unity of the human race, and the state attorney general pointed out there are no major racial tensions in California.

Rev. Harry B. Scholefield and Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk mounted the podium at Olney Hall in observance of the eleventh anniversary of the signing of the United Nations' Declaration of Human Rights.

Rev. Scholefield, speaking on moral and religious aspects of human rights, blamed the "devil theory" of history "America all good; enemies all bad," growth of statism and modern technology for the lessening of respect for reason and rights.

The essential factor of freedom is personal responsibility and complacency must be shunned or freedom could be lost, he said.

The problem of discrimination, the minister said, should be approached at the housing level.

Speaking on the political side of the evening top, Mosk noted state legislature supported the declaration of equal rights and that his office is enforcing it.

Race tensions, he said, are not too strong in California. He credited anticipatory action of law enforcement officers and an examining of conscience as being responsible for this.

It is imperative, he continued, to keep our hands clean (of discrimination) to make friends and influence people in other countries. The foreign press magnifies our mistakes in race problems and this hurts America's international position, he warned.

The program was sponsored by the Mill Valley and San Anselmo Leagues of Women Voters and the Marin Chapter of the American Assn. for the United Nations.

Adj. Gen. W. E. Glake, asked for an explanation, said "We exercise these vehicles every now and then just to be sure they're in good working order."

The newspaper Wednesday had carried an editorial questioning the guard's armory program.

Employment Falls By Million In November

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The number of jobs held by Americans dropped by more than one million in November, the government reported today.

Unemployment climbed by 398,000 to 3,670,000.

The Labor Department said total employment fell by 1,191,000 to 66,931,000, slightly more than the usual for the month.

The department attributed both changes to mounting layoffs in auto plants and other industries faced with steel shortages in the wake of the 116-day steel strike.

The rise in joblessness was less than expected for November but it was the second-highest total for any November since the end of World War II.

The employment figure was a record high for November even though it declined sharply.

The seasonally adjusted rate of unemployment, however, dropped from 6 per cent in October to 5.6 per cent in November.

This drop was attributed to the fact that fewer women and teen-agers entered the labor force to seek Christmas jobs last month.

Employment Falls By Million In November

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The number of jobs held by Americans dropped by more than one million in November, the government reported today.

Unemployment climbed by 398,000 to 3,670,000.

The Labor Department said total employment fell by 1,191,000 to 66,931,000, slightly more than the usual for the month.

The department attributed both changes to mounting layoffs in auto plants and other industries faced with steel shortages in the wake of the 116-day steel strike.

The rise in joblessness was less than expected for November but it was the second-highest total for any November since the end of World War II.

The employment figure was a record high for November even though it declined sharply.

The seasonally adjusted rate of unemployment, however, dropped from 6 per cent in October to 5.6 per cent in November.

This drop was attribtued to the fact that fewer women and teen-agers entered the labor force to seek Christmas jobs last month.

Bridge Tolls Urged To Finance Transit

A proposal that bridge tolls be used to finance the cost of altering the Golden Gate Bridge to carry rapid transit was made to the Bay Area Rapid Transit District yesterday.

John C. Beckett of Kent Woodlands, vice president of the transit, made the proposal. It was referred to the finance committee and staff.

Beckett pointed out that the tube between Oakland and San Francisco, estimated to cost 150 million dollars, would be financed from auto tolls on the Bay Bridge.

The Golden Gate crossing, if it proves feasible from an engineering standpoint, would cost in the neighborhood of 50 millon dollars, Beckett estimated.

Having auto tolls help pay for rapid transit would spread the cost of the transit system as nearly as possible among those who benefit from it, the Marin director contended. Motorists who cross the bridge would benefit because many cars would be removed from the bridge by rapid transit, allowing them more room and greater convenience.

Beckett said the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District had not yet been informed of the proposal "because we are just starting to think about it; we haven't made any kind of a decision."

Although cost of the proposed Marin rapid transit line from Sausalito to Ignacio is "relatively high" because of "extensive tunnels and other obstacles," it is "consistent with the financial resources of Marin County in proportion to the rest of the system." Only the crossing itself is "excessively costly," he noted.

However, without using the Golden Gate Bridge, rapid transit to Marin "would not be practical; there is no alternative at present," he said.

Details of the proposal would have to be worked out, Beckett went on. He said he did not know if voters of the bridge district would have to approve a revenue bond issue to provide the 50 million dollars.

If it did go through, however, a total of 200 million dollars would be taken off the general obligation bond issue which the district would ask the taxpayers to approve next November. The 150 million dollars for the tube was assured by this year's session of the Legislature. The final bond issue is expected to be about $500 million dollars.

The transit directors moved yesterday to speed the study of engineering feasiblity of using the Gate span for high-speed electric trains. They authorized the general manager and chief engineer to select one of three suspension bridge specialists to make the study.

The three, D. B. Steinman of New York, Ammann and Whitney of New York, Modjeski of Harrisburg, Pa., have all received approval of the bridge directors as being acceptable to make the study. The bridge directors have agreed to have their engineers review the findings of the consulting engineers in an effort to settle the disputed claim that the Golden Gate Bridge is strong enough to support rapid transit.

S. F. Man Heads Transit District

Adrien J. Falk, San Francisco business consultant and retired president of S and W Fine Foods, Inc., was elected president of the Bay Area Rapid Transit District yesterday.

Falk, 75, a former president of the California State Chamber of Commerce, succeeds Clair W. MacLeod of Oakland, who has been president for the first two years of the district's life.

H. L. Cummings of Crockett, former Contra Costa County supervisor, was elected to replace vice president John C. Beckett of Kent Woodlands, who also has served for two terms.

RUDOLPH MAY HAVE TO SUB FOR BLITZEN

BOSTON (UPI)—The kiddies didn't know what to think but there, right in front of their wondering eyes, was Donder blitzing the bejabbers out of Blitzen in a battle over peanuts on the Boston Common.

Donder and Blitzen finally locked horns in their hassle yesterday and keepers were able to pry them apart and restore some of the Yuletide spirit to the Christmas display on the Common.

The battle between the reindeer started when a youngster slipped some peanuts through a fence to Blitzen and Donner butted in.

Blitzen, a little the worse for wear, was carted off to Franklin Park Zoo infirmary for treatment.

But a number of parents assured their worried children he would be ready for action on Santa's sleigh Christmas Eve.

Baptist Churches Join For Oratorio

An ensemble of choirs from four Baptist churches in Mill Valley and San Anselmo will present Camille Saint-Saens' Christmas Oratorio at the chapel of the Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary in Strawberry, at 7:30 p.m. Sunday and at First Baptist Church in Mill Valley on Dec. 20.

The American Federation of Musicians has provided funds for an orchestral ensemble to accompany the presentation this Sunday.

Dr. David P. Appleby, assistant professor of church music at the seminary, will conduct.

The Greeks call their country Vasileion tis Ellados, or Kingdom of Hellas.

College Trustees Approve New Method Of Evaluating Teachers

A new and more comprehensive system of evaluating College of Marin's probationary teachers was approved last night by Marin Junior College District trustees.

Under the procedure, the ability and performance of such teachers will be measured by four-member faculty committees to be appointed by president Ward H. Austin.

A separate committee will be assigned to each teacher. All committee members must have tenure status. Committee reports will be filed with Austin, who will forward them to the board of trustees along with his own recommendations.

In the past, Austin has recommended the retention or release of probationary teachers on the strength of written reports from department heads, consultations with administrative officials and his own investigations.

The new system was recommended by a subcommittee of the certificated employees welfare committee. Mildred Wollet, social science and hygiene teacher, is the subcommittee chairman.

Nine probationary teachers, including four who will receive tenure if rehired for 1960-61, will be evaluated before March 10, the deadline set by the board for filing reports.

Austin recommended, and the three trustees present informally agreed, that such reports be filed in January after next year. Absent were Trustees George G. Washburn and Robert E. Oliver.

Also at last night's four-hour and 45-minute session of the college board:

1. Authorization was granted for a new adult class in creative drama, to be taught during the winter quarter by Mrs. Margot Adams. It is designed primarily for youth group directors.

2. Austin was instructed to refund a $50 fee paid under protest by the Henry George School of Social Science for use of a college room to conduct a tuition-free course in economics. Asst. County Counsel E. Warren McGuire recommended the refund, Austin said.

3. Adaline E. Kent School was denied use of the college gymnasium for after-school recreation programs on four dates in January and February.

4. Austin was instructed to ask architect William Corlett to prepare bid specifications for two proposed water lines and submit cost estimates. One line would supply the college football field and gymnasium; the other would run from Sir Francis Drake boulevard to a central point on the campus.

5. A letter was received from Dr. Virgil S. Hollis, county superintendent of schools, offering assistance in preparing job specifications and screening candidates for the College of Marin presidency. Austin will leave the post in 1961 on reaching the mandatory retirement age of 65.

6. A resolution was passed extending social security benefits to certain part-time employees who are not members of the state employees retirement system.

7. Austin was instructed to write Mrs. E. M. Travers of 16 Laurel avenue, Kentfield, that an open drainage ditch she had complained about is a county problem. The ditch runs along the campus road between Drake boulevard and the college parking area.

8. A decision on the state Personnel Division's offer to conduct a job classification and pay survey of the district's non-teaching positions was postponed to Jan. 14.

9. Warrants totaling $6,310.85 were approved.

10. In executive session, the board voted to dismiss Elbert V. Quilici, a campus gardner. This leaves two full-time and one half-time employees on the gardening staff, Austin reported.

Novato Man New Head Of Real Estate Board

Frank Perachiotti of Novato was elected yesterday as the 1960 president of the Marin County Real Estate Board.

He succeeds Edward P. Morphy of San Rafael.

Perachiotti lives at 1408 Cambridge street, Novato, and operates the Perachiotti Realty at 7369 Redwood highway.

He is a World War II Air Force veteran and was a schoolteacher before entering the Air Force. He came to Marin during his Air Force service and has resided here 17 years, being in the real estate business the past 13 years.

He is secretary of the Novato Little League and a member of the Novato Chamber of Commerce and the San Rafael Elks Lodge. He and his wife, Yvonne, have two sons, aged 11 and 6.

Raymond J. (Bud) Eckert of San Anselmo was elected vice president; Roy Farrington Jones of San Anselmo, secretary, and Blanche Redmond of San Rafael, treasurer. Daniel F. Deedy will continue as executive manager.

Elected to the board of directors were Ralph McGrath of San Rafael, Robert Roumiguiere and William Maier of San Anselmo, Edward Ward of Tiburon and Gene McDaniels of Bolinas.

The election was held at a meeting at Bob's of Marin in Corte Madera. Officers will be installed Jan. 14 at a dinner meeting at the Meadow Club in Fairfax.

Fishermen Move North For Crab

Marin County crab fishermen have abandoned unproductive local waters and were headed for Eureka today.

An initially poor local season which opened last month has pinched down to almost no crab take whatever, crab fishermen reported. But the season from Pt. Arenas north opens Tuesday.

"When the season opened here only about one-third the usual supply was in evidence," said Cass Gidley, operating seven crab sales trucks from Lighthouse Crab Co. in San Rafael. "This has dropped to about 10 per cent."

Hoyt Barnett, a fisherman, said the pot lines have been operated much deeper than last year but still the crabs haven't been around.

Northern crabs will come down by truck starting Tuesday afternoon.

BLACK SWAN RUNS OUT ON LADY FRIEND

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—After 88 days of quarantine togetherness, two rare Australian black swans were freed yesterday at the Palace of Fine Arts lagoon.

The male bird promptly left the mate he had traveled with from Australia for the company of the lagoon's only other black swan, a female recently bereaved of her mate.

The new arrivals are a gift from Sir Edward Hallstrom of Sydney.

Lucky Bunnies

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Baby cottontail rabbits who want to live to a leisurely old age are welcome in the hutches of biologist Rexford D. Lord.

Lord needs the wild rabbits for his growth-rate study, a part of a wildlife research program of the Illinois Natural History Survey.

Lord says rabbits in the wild live about five to six months. The longest he has kept a cottontail alive in captivity is 30 months.

Bridge Board Approves Transit Study

Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District directors today formally approved a study of feasibility of rapid transit on the bridge.

By a 12-0 vote, with no discussion, the board approved a plan offered by the Bay Area Rapid Transit District. The transit district would pay for the engineering feasibility study and submit results to the bridge district board for review and analysis.

The bridge directors provided, however, that the study be limited to engineering aspects, and that the bridge district be "entirely free and independent" of any participation in selection of engineers to make the study.

The bridge directors also offered full cooperation and assistance in expediting the study, and pledged prompt action on the recommendations after "most serious consideration of the conclusions reached by the engineering firm."

Federal Agency Scraps One Rocket To Push Others

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The federal space agency today scrapped its Vega rocket in order to make powerful boosters available for pushing other projects—perhaps including a new attempt to launch a moon satellite.

In discarding the Vega, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration will be able to divert six Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile boosters to other programs.

These programs include development of the Centaur and Atlas-Agena rockets. It was speculated that perhaps one of the six Atlas engines will be used in a new moon shot.

In cancelling its Vega contracts with the Convair Division of General Dynamics and the General Electric Co., the federal agency will lose about 17 million dollars.

The original prime contract with Convair, announced last May, was for $33,500,000. The original contract with General Electric, for liquid-fueled second stage engines of 34,000 pounds' thrust, was for $4,120,000.

The total cost of the Vega project would have been 65 million dollars. The agency said it would recover all but the 17 million dollars.

Novato Man New Head Of Real Estate Board

Frank Perachiotti of Novato was elected yesterday as the 1960 president of the Marin County Real Estate Board.

He succeeds Edward P. Morphy of San Rafael.

Perachiotti lives at 1408 Cambridge street, Novato, and operates the Perachiotti Realty at 7369 Redwood highway.

He is a World War II Air Force veteran and was a schoolteacher before entering the Air Force. He came to Marin during his Air Force service and has resided here 17 years, being in the real estate business the past 13 years.

He is secretary of the Novato Little League and a member of the Novato Chamber of Commerce and the San Rafael Elks Lodge. He and his wife, Yvonne, have two sons, aged 11 and 6.

Raymond J. (Bud) Eckert of San Anselmo was elected vice president; Roy Farrington Jones of San Anselmo, secretary, and Blanche Redmond of San Rafael, treasurer. Daniel F. Deedy will continue as executive manager.

Elected to the board of directors were Ralph McGrath of San Rafael, Robert Roumiguiere and William Maier of San Anselmo, Edward Ward of Tiburon and Gene McDaniels of Bolinas.

The election was held at a meeting at Bob's of Marin in Corte Madera. Officers will be installed Jan. 14 at a dinner meeting at the Meadow Club in Fairfax.

Fishermen Move North For Crab

Marin County crab fishermen have abandoned unproductive local waters and were headed for Eureka today.

An initially poor local season which opened last month has pinched down to almost no crab take whatever, crab fishermen reported. But the season from Pt. Arenas north opens Tuesday.

"When the season opened here only about one-third the usual supply was in evidence," said Cass Gidley, operating seven crab sales trucks from Lighthouse Crab Co. in San Rafael. "This has dropped to about 10 per cent."

Hoyt Barnett, a fisherman, said the pot lines have been operated much deeper than last year but still the crabs haven't been around.

Northern crabs will come down by truck starting Tuesday afternoon.

BLACK SWAN RUNS OUT ON LADY FRIEND

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—After 88 days of quarantine togetherness, two rare Australian black swans were freed yesterday at the Palace of Fine Arts lagoon.

The male bird promptly left the mate he had traveled with from Australia for the company of the lagoon's only other black swan, a female recently bereaved of her mate.

The new arrivals are a gift from Sir Edward Hallstrom of Sydney.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Baby cottontail rabbits who want to live to a leisurely old age are welcome in the hutches of biologist Rexford D. Lord.

Lord needs the wild rabbits for his growth-rate study, a part of a wildlife research program of the Illinois Natural History Survey.

Lord says rabbits in the wild live about five to six months. The longest he has kept a cottontail alive in captivity is 30 months.

Big Park Development Set For State, If Money Can Be Found

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The state Division of Beaches and Parks says it's ready to proceed with a five-year, 110-million-dollar park development plan—if it can find the money.

State Park Chief Charles A. DeTurk, still looking for funds to finish off the current five-year plan unveiled the new proposal yesterday at a meeting of the Assembly Interim Committee on Ways and Means.

"Whether it's worth it or not to spend the money for development is strictly a legislative matter," DeTurk said.

The plan includes development of 4,000 new camping sites, 4,000 picnic facilities and 10,000 parking spaces. It also calls for 20 million dollars in improvements to existing facilities.

DeTurk said he is offering the plan as an indication of what the division can do, not as a recommendation.

"And where will the money come from?" asked Chairman Jesse M. Unruh (D-Los Angeles).

He noted that a drop in beaches and parks' share of tidelands oil income probably will cause postponement of 13 million dollars of park work planned for next year—last in the current five-year plan for parks.

DeTurk suggested a special 10-cent fee at parks, or collecting use fees at double the present rate might make up the deficit. He said it would add two and one-half million dollars to the 1.3 million now collected each year.

DeWitt Nelson, director of natural resources, also suggested meeting the deficit by eliminating projects added to the current five-year plan after its adoption, including a 7.9-million-dollar development proposed for the Squaw Valley Winter Olympics site Nelson said.

Drug Prices Criticized By Manufacturer

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A small drug manufacturer charged today that the pharmaceutical industry is overcharging the public by at least 275 million dollars yearly for prescription medicines.

The accusation was made before the Senate Anti-Trust Subcommittee by Seymour N. Blackman, executive secretary of Premo Pharmaceutical Laboratories of South Hackensack, N. J.

He blamed high drug prices on the "blitz" advertising and promotion techniques used by the big drug companies. This, he said, persuades doctors to use their brand names in writing prescriptions and enables them to capitalize on a "beautiful natural monopoly."

Blackman's criticism of drug industry pricing and promotion practices was the severest the subcommittee has heard in its investigation of drug prices.

He noted that some drug manufacturers have tended to blame retail pharmacists for excessive markups on medicine. But this, he said, is a case of "the lion hiding behind the skirts of the mouse."

He said retail druggists have "nothing whatsoever to do with the promotion of prescription items" and, along with their customers, "are captives to the trademark name written by the physician."

Blackman was called as a witness as the subcommittee headed by Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) dug further into charges that high-powered advertising campaigns by medical firms have confused doctors, raised prices and may harm patients.

Palo Alto Woman Injured In Crash

Mrs. Gloria Maria Kraft, 34, of Palo Alto, was injured early today when a car driven by her husband, George Frederick Kraft, 40, went out of control on Highway 101 south of San Rafael and ripped out 60 feet of chain fence at the side of the highway.

Kraft said he had been passing a truck and struck the divider strip in the middle, causing the car to careen to the side of the road.

His wife was reported in good condition at San Rafael General Hospital after treatment for cuts on her face and forehead.

Woman Hurt In Car

Irene Clark, 33, of 29 Crescent avenue, Sausalito, suffered slight facial cuts today when the brakes on her car failed and it hit a cement wall at 116 West street, Sausalito, at 8:15 a.m., police said. She was taken to a doctor for treatment.

3 Marinites Picked For Youth Meet

Two Marin County adults and a 16-year-old Tamalpais High School junior have been selected as delegates to attend the President's White House Conference on Youth next March.

Rex Silvernale, member of the San Rafael Board of Education, Rev. Mark Hurley of Marin Catholic High School, and student Stewart Hindley have been selected as three of the 164 delegates from California.

The names of Silvernale and young Hindley were among 13 submitted as nominees by a Marin County selection committee appointed by the board of supervisors and headed by Virgil S. Hollis, county superintendent of schools.

Hollis said he was advised of the selections yesterday by the state committee.

The President's conference will run from March 22 to April 2.

Cuba Arrests Two Newsmen In Connection With Escape

HAVANA (AP)—Fidel Castro's regime today arrested but later released a British newsman. Still held was reporter James Buchanan of the Miami Herald, seized on charges that he was aiding Frank Austin Young, an American sentenced by a Castro military court.

The British correspondent is Ian Aitken, representing Lord Beaverbrook's newspapers. He was seized after returning from an investigation of Young's escape from jail in Pinar del Rio.

On his release, Aitken said he had been asked if he knew a man named Buckman. His questioners apparently were referring to the Miami reporter.

Agents who arrested Buchanan said he was entering the hotel room in which they recaptured Young yesterday.

A U.S. Embassy representative said he understood officials planned to take Buchanan before a Havana judge and charge him with having been Young's accomplice, on the ground he tried to help a fugitive.

Young, a 38-year-old pilot-adventurer from Miami, was sentenced to 30 years in prison Tuesday in Pinar del Rio for conspiring against Castro's government. He escaped Wednesday and made his way to Havana, but his freedom lasted less than 48 hours.

Cuban agents claimed Buchanan was bringing bandages to Young, who had hurt his leg in the escape.

Two Injured In Collision

A slow-moving truck was struck from behind on Highway 101 south of the Greenbrae interchange last evening by an overtaking passenger car and both drivers were injured.

William P. Civinele, 24, of Daly City, later told the California Highway Patrol his truck speed had dropped to between 10 and 20 miles an hour and he was about to shift down to pull up the grade northbound when his vehicle was hit from the rear about 6 p.m.

Leonard S. Fabian, 21, of 162 Alpine street, San Rafael, was driving a passenger car in the outside lane at a speed he estimated at 45 miles an hour when the "truck seemed stopped" ahead of him.

Both drivers suffered cuts and bruises. Fabian, who was given a patrol citation on a charge of not exercising due caution, was given emergency treatment at Marin General Hospital.

Big Park Development Set For State, If Money Can Be Found

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The state Division of Beaches and Parks says it's ready to proceed with a five-year, 110-million-dollar park development plan—if it can find the money.

State Park Chief Charles A. DeTurk, still looking for funds to finish off the current five-year plan unveiled the new proposal yesterday at a meeting of the Assembly Interim Committee on Ways and Means.

"Whether it's worth it or not to spend the money for development is strictly a legislative matter," DeTurk said.

The plan includes development of 4,000 new camping sites, 4,000 picnic facilities and 10,000 parking spaces. It also calls for 20 million dollars in improvements to existing facilities.

DeTurk said he is offering the plan as an indication of what the division can do, not as a recommendation.

"And where will the money come from?" asked Chairman Jesse M. Unruh (D-Los Angeles).

He noted that a drop in beaches and parks' share of tidelands oil income probably will cause postponement of 13 million dollars of park work planned for next year—last in the current five-year plan for parks.

DeTurk suggested a special 10-cent fee at parks, or collecting use fees at double the present rate might make up the deficit. He said it would add two and one-half million dollars to the 1.3 million now collected each year.

DeWitt Nelson, director of natural resources, also suggested meeting the deficit by eliminating projects added to the current five-year plan after its adoption, including a 7.9-million-dollar development proposed for the Squaw Valley Winter Olympics site Nelson said.

Drug Prices Criticized By Manufacturer

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A small drug manufacturer charged today that the pharmaceutical industry is overcharging the public by at least 275 million dollars yearly for prescription medicines.

The accusation was made before the Senate Anti-Trust Subcommittee by Seymour N. Blackman, executive secretary of Premo Pharmaceutical Laboratories of South Hackensack, N. J.

He blamed high drug prices on the "blitz" advertising and promotion techniques used by the big drug companies. This, he said, persuades doctors to use their brand names in writing prescriptions and enables them to capitalize on a "beautiful natural monopoly."

Blackman's criticism of drug industry pricing and promotion practices was the severest the subcommittee has heard in its investigation of drug prices.

He noted that some drug manufacturers have tended to blame retail pharmacists for excessive markups on medicine. But this, he said, is a case of "the lion hiding behind the skirts of the mouse."

He said retail druggists have "nothing whatsoever to do with the promotion of prescription items" and, along with their customers, "are captives to the trademark name written by the physician."

Blackman was called as a witness as the subcommittee headed by Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) dug further into charges that high-powered advertising campaigns by medical firms have confused doctors, raised prices and may harm patients.

The names of Silvernale and young Hindley were among 13 submitted as nominees by a Marin County selection committee appointed by the board of supervisors and headed by Virgil S. Hollis, county superintendent of schools.

Hollis said he was advised of the selections yesterday by the state committee.

The President's conference will run from March 22 to April 2.

Palo Alto Woman Injured In Crash

Mrs. Gloria Maria Kraft, 34, of Palo Alto, was injured early today when a car driven by her husband, George Frederick Kraft, 40, went out of control on Highway 101 south of San Rafael and ripped out 60 feet of chain fence at the side of the highway.

Kraft said he had been passing a truck and struck the divider strip in the middle, causing the car to careen to the side of the road.

His wife was reported in good condition at San Rafael General Hospital after treatment for cuts on her face and forehead.

Woman Hurt In Car

Irene Clark, 33, of 29 Crescent avenue, Sausalito, suffered slight facial cuts today when the brakes on her car failed and it hit a cement wall at 116 West street, Sausalito, at 8:15 a.m., police said. She was taken to a doctor for treatment.

Cuba Arrests Two Newsmen In Connection With Escape

HAVANA (AP)—Fidel Castro's regime today arrested but later released a British newsman. Still held was reporter James Buchanan of the Miami Herald, seized on charges that he was aiding Frank Austin Young, an American sentenced by a Castro military court.

The British correspondent is Ian Aitken, representing Lord Beaverbrook's newspapers. He was seized after returning from an investigation of Young's escape from jail in Pinar del Rio.

On his release, Aitken said he had been asked if he knew a man named Buckman. His questioners apparently were referring to the Miami reporter.

Agents who arrested Buchanan said he was entering the hotel room in which they recaptured Young yesterday.

A U.S. Embassy representative said he understood officials planned to take Buchanan before a Havana judge and charge him with having been Young's accomplice, on the ground he tried to help a fugitive.

Young, a 38-year-old pilot-adventurer from Miami, was sentenced to 30 years in prison Tuesday in Pinar del Rio for conspiring against Castro's government. He escaped Wednesday and made his way to Havana, but his freedom lasted less than 48 hours.

Cuban agents claimed Buchanan was bringing bandages to Young, who had hurt his leg in the escape.

A slow-moving truck was struck from behind on Highway 101 south of the Greenbrae interchange last evening by an overtaking passenger car and both drivers were injured.

William P. Civinele, 24, of Daly City, later told the California Highway Patrol his truck speed had dropped to between 10 and 20 miles an hour and he was about to shift down to pull up the grade northbound when his vehicle was hit from the rear about 6 p.m.

Leonard S. Fabian, 21, of 162 Alpine street, San Rafael, was driving a passenger car in the outside lane at a speed he estimated at 45 miles an hour when the "truck seemed stopped" ahead of him.

Both drivers suffered cuts and bruises. Fabian, who was given a patrol citation on a charge of not exercising due caution, was given emergency treatment at Marin General Hospital.

MARIN MOVIE FARE

DeMille Extravaganza Set For Tam Screen

By LESLIE DARD

Several of Marin's theaters are closed for their pre-Christmas refurbishing, but six are still operative. Here are the programming details:

TAMALPAIS THEATER

You can get a taste of what's to come in the next year (when U.S. and European producers will release about 25 spectaculars) by seeing the revival of "Samson and Delilah," which opens Sunday in the San Anselmo movie house.

This biblical extravaganza (in Technicolor) was one of Cecil B. DeMille's greatest and made a mint for Paramount when it first was released 10 years ago.

Hedy Lamarr appears as Delilah and Victor Mature as Samson. The huge cast also includes George Sanders, Angela Lansbury, Fay Holden, Henry Wilcoxon and Russ Tamblyn, plus the usual DeMille extras (in the thousands).

MARIN MOTOR MOVIES

Al Capone was the loudest and the biggest, the most famous and the most feared, the richest and most powerful gangster in America in his time. It's his story which is told in "Al Capone," now showing at the drive-in theater.

Rod Steiger stars in this straightforward account, playing the lead role as if Edward G. Robinson never had existed.

The film makes a few minor deviations from the sordid record, but the ganster's brazen effrontery comes through and helps keep the tension high. Steiger is the embodiment of terror as he guns down the opposition, a man of slick glibness and low cunning. Fay Spain costars.

MARIN THEATER

"Pillow Talk" (CinemaScope and color), this year's most sophisticated light comedy, opens Sunday at the Sausalito theater. Its stars are:

Rock Hudson, a handhome young man who indulges himself by singing on the telephone to moonstruck females most of the day.

Doris Day, a business-before-pleasure career girl who shares his party line.

NOVATO THEATER

"The Blue Angel" (color, CinemaScope) is Hollywood's remake of the film that projected Marlene Dietrich to success.

This time around, the hard-hearted Lola who lures a high school teacher to disaster is played by May Britt, a long-limbed blonde who is being billed as filmtown's newest sex goddess.

Curt Jurgens, the European idol, plays the teacher.

This film opens Sunday.

RAFAEL THEATER

"Gigi," CinemaScope musical adaptation of the famous Colette novel about the language of love, has been held over at the San Rafael theater.

Winner of the Oscar for the best film of the year, this film has a screenplay, music and lyrics by Alan Jay Lerner and Frederick Lowe, the pair responsible for "My Fair Lady."

The whole affair is guided by Maurice Chevalier as the epitome of the plush, carefree Paris.

Louis Jourdan plays the richest dandy of all, who is quite bored with everything except little Gigi (Leslie Caron) and her sly grandmother (Hermione Gingold).

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

One of the most reliable targets for a comedy assault is the Navy. And MGM has a goofy spoof of the wartime service in "Don't Go Near the Water," a CinemaScope-color version of William Brinkley's best seller.

It deals with a World War II public relations outfit stationed on a Pacific island.

Fred Clark, alias "Marblehead," is the commander, a pompus niny. Glen Ford is his long-suffering aide. Keenan Wynn is an arrogant correspondent who thinks he runs the Navy.

There are several women on the island, too, including Anne Francis and Gia Scala.

The comic highlight of the show is Mickey Shaughnessy, who plays a tattoed sailor called Farragut Jones—a "typical" Navy man who is thoroughly "untypical."

Socialite Files Big Lawsuit Against Spouse, Marinites

Mrs. Barbara Barnato, 22, who is suing her millionaire husband Michael for separate maintenance, filed a $100,000 damage suit this week in San Francisco against her estranged husband and her sister-in-law and the latter's husband, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Dixon of Fairfax.

Mrs. Barnato's damage suit claims the Dixons invited her to a Las Vegas resort hotel for a holiday, promising her a "surprise."

The surprise was a summons served as soon as she checked into the Nevada hotel forcing her to appear at a divorce action filed by Barnato in Nevada.

Gloria Dixon is the widow of Peter Barnato, heir to the Kimberly diamond millions who died of cancer in Marin Feb. 22. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thalbert Duncan, formerly of Kent Woodlands. She married her present husband last September.

The defendants, Mrs. Barnato said, in serving her the summons, "deliberately and with calculation entered into an unlawful . . . conspiracy." This caused her to suffer damage to the effect of $100,000, she said.

The complaint continued that Michael recently inherited $500,000 from his father's estate and that Gloria Dixon is believed to have received the same amount left by her late husband, Peter Barnato.

Attends Fund Meet

W. A. Magee of 758 Appleberry drive, Lucas Valley, attended a manager's conference in Denver last week of Financial Industrial Fund, Inc. of which he is San Francisco division manager.

COMEDY RETURNS—The comedy, "Don't Go Near the Water," starring Gia Scala and Glenn Ford, is being revived this weekend at the Tiburon Playhouse along with "Pal Joey," which features Frank Sinatra and Kim Novak.

STRONG BOY—Victor Mature, as the Biblical hero in Cecil B. DeMille's "Samson and Delilah," displays his phenomenal strength by besting the giant Philistine wrestler. The Technicolor spectacle also stars Hedy Lamarr, George Sanders, Angela Lansbury and Henry Wilcoxon. Kirk Douglas in "Ulysses" completes the program which opens Sunday at the Tamalpais Theater in San Anselmo.

GOP Conclave Tickets To Be Hard To Get

CHICAGO (AP)—Chances of getting a ticket to the Republican National Convention next year are mighty slim.

Planners reported last night that only 2,800 tickets will be available to the general public.

That compares with 3,454 in 1956, when the GOP met in Cow Palace in San Francisco; and 3,000 in 1952 when the Republicans met in Chicago's International Amphitheater for the first time.

Jaren L. Jones, of Utah, vice chairman of the convention arrangements committee, told newsmen only 2,800 tickets will be left for distribution to the 50 states after the party takes care of delegates, officials and dignitaries.

Salvation Army Asks For Funds In Sausalito

The Sausalito service committee of the Salvation Army is seeking $1,000 in a Christmas appeal to carry on its program for the coming year, Mrs. Ernest H. King, chariman, announced today.

Contributions can be mailed to Ivan Conn, treasurer of the committee, at the American Trust Co., Sausalito.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Fairfax Restaurant Woman's Sharp Tongue Cover-Up For Tender Heart

A most remarkable character in Marin restaurant annals is Antoinette Ghiringhelli. She and her husband, Joe, have owned and operated Deer Park Villa in Fairfax these past 22 years.

Antoinette is an anomaly, which is to say she doesn't conform to conventional standards. I might add there is nothing wrong with her own standards. It's just that the way she asserts them at times is somewhat startling.

Those who know her accept her tongue lashings without offense. The spicy flavor of her speech is a cover-up for a heart as tender as Joe's scallopini.

But this same speech takes on a different meaning when directed toward objectionables, particularly if their alcoholic capacity has been reached. The point of no return is carefully judged and from then on passengers have to make the rest of the trip without refueling.

Then there is the matter of dinner. If you've dallied beyond the point of reason without ordering you'll be gently or otherwise reminded that it's now or never. A reasonable person just doesn't argue.

Yet, I've seen tears well up in Antoinette's eyes when speaking of someone's misfortune, and if there's anything she can do to help she will.

A most remarkable person. And she's right about one thing. The food at Deer Park Villa is too good to be treated without respect for Joe's art. Honest.

MUCH ADO Wednesday at Ondine with jacks, block and tackle and workmen all over the place. For a moment I thought a launching was in progress.

"You can't do that," I told Freddie Martinez. "Angel Island hasn't any commute service yet, and, besides, Sausalito needs you."

It wasn't that way at all. Only a matter of raising the fore deck to match the level of the new after deck, or words to that effect. Everything's now about two feet higher except the prices.

A popular misconception persists that Ondine is merely expanding its quarters. Not so—a separate dinery is in the offing. The architects and decorators are clamoring for an appropriate name so they can label their blue prints something besides "That Place."

Two dinners are yours if you come up with the right one. Send your suggestions to Ondine. Or send them to me if you want to do so, and I'll pass them along. Something nautical is desired.

LATELY at Joe's in San Rafael, Esther Siewert of Kentfield has been the piano hostess. And a very lovely addition she is. She's able to play all the pieces I like to hear, which seems to make an evening well spent. She's there Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights.

Just to see if the old master had lost his touch I ordered the lobster steak which Hector Rubini made famous (here it's called Joe's lobster steak.) He hadn't. By golly, he sure can cook. My wife's viewpoint coincided with mine, but from the perspective of a flavorsome medallion steak of filet of beef.

Joe's, by the way, is getting to be like Times Square. If you set there long enough, sooner or later you'll come across all your friends.

In Marin County, anyway.

GOOD WISHES are in order for Les Johnston who's had to give up cheffing at Le Chateau for a time.

He had another operation and is recovering at home. We hope he'll be back in kitchen harness again soon.

YOU MIGHT look into Dick Murphy's Backstage Coffee House in Tiburon. It doesn't make much difference when, because it's open from 9 a.m. through breakfast, lunch and dinner Monday through Sunday.

If you like the exotic coffees —Turkish, Borgia, Russe, Cappuccino and the like, or plain old American style—there's a nice choice for sittin' and chattin'.

Otherwise try the eggs Benedict or any other style, blueberry pancackes, sandwiches or some of the things they do with grilled chopped beef. Prices are very much in line. And the quality superb.

WHILE we're down in Latitude 37 degrees 52 minutes North, Longitude 122 degrees, 27 minutes West., mention should be made that Tommie Cox is holding open house for his friends next Tuesday from 5 p.m. until the food runs out, on the first anniversary of Tiburon Tommie's Pier 41. It held out pretty well at his party last June—and he's got a lot of friends.

"NO FAIR," said this friend of ours at Ross Hospital. "You write about dining out and inns. What about something on dining in for those of us who can't get out"

So be it. I am informed that the food at Ross Hospital is delightful. Unless you're under the watchful eye of the dietician your fare will match the most select menu. In fact any time they want to give up hospitalizing and set up tables for the general public they ought to succeed, competition notwithstanding.

Be assured then, whatever the ailment that takes you there, fasting per se is not considered good therapy.

Is that what you wanted me to say, Alice?

High School Preparing List Of Job Seekers

The Sir Francis Drake High School business department is compiling a list of graduating students who will be available for permanent jobs in the commercial field, Herman C. Graves, department chairman, said today.

"Our plan," he said, "is to rate the job candidates on training, ability and other qualifications for specific jobs. When interested employers call the school, business teachers will confer as to the best candidate to send."

For instance — it registers aliens, takes the deer and grouse census, provides flags for funerals of old soldiers, has become a banker of sorts with $5 billion of money orders annually, and a seamstress (with eight million mail bags sewed up in 1958).

MARIN MOVIE FARE

DeMille Extravaganza Set For Tam Screen

By LESLIE DARD

Several of Marin's theaters are closed for their pre-Christmas refurbishing, but six are still operative. Here are the programming details:

TAMALPAIS THEATER

You can get a taste of what's to come in the next year (when U.S. and European producers will release about 25 spectaculars) by seeing the revival of "Samson and Delilah," which opens Sunday in the San Anselmo movie house.

This biblical extravaganza (in Technicolor) was one of Cecil B. DeMille's greatest and made a mint for Paramount when it first was released 10 years ago.

Hedy Lamarr appears as Delilah and Victor Mature as Samson. The huge cast also includes George Sanders, Angela Lansbury, Fay Holden, Henry Wilcoxon and Russ Tamblyn, plus the usual DeMille extras (in the thousands).

MARIN MOTOR MOVIES

Al Capone was the loudest and the biggest, the most famous and the most feared, the richest and most powerful gangster in America in his time. It's his story which is told in "Al Capone," now showing at the drive-in theater.

Rod Steiger stars in this straightforward account, playing the lead role as if Edward G. Robinson never had existed.

The film makes a few minor deviations from the sordid record, but the ganster's brazen effrontery comes through and helps keep the tension high. Steiger is the embodiment of terror as he guns down the opposition, a man of slick glibness and low cunning. Fay Spain costars.

MARIN THEATER

"Pillow Talk" (CinemaScope and color), this year's most sophisticated light comedy, opens Sunday at the Sausalito theater. Its stars are:

Rock Hudson, a handhome young man who indulges himself by singing on the telephone to moonstruck females most of the day.

Doris Day, a business-before-pleasure career girl who shares his party line.

NOVATO THEATER

"The Blue Angel" (color, CinemaScope) is Hollywood's remake of the film that projected Marlene Dietrich to success.

This time around, the hard-hearted Lola who lures a high school teacher to disaster is played by May Britt, a long-limbed blonde who is being billed as filmtown's newest sex goddess.

Curt Jurgens, the European idol, plays the teacher.

This film opens Sunday.

RAFAEL THEATER

"Gigi," CinemaScope musical adaptation of the famous Colette novel about the language of love, has been held over at the San Rafael theater.

Winner of the Oscar for the best film of the year, this film has a screenplay, music and lyrics by Alan Jay Lerner and Frederick Lowe, the pair responsible for "My Fair Lady."

The whole affair is guided by Maurice Chevalier as the epitome of the plush, carefree Paris.

Louis Jourdan plays the richest dandy of all, who is quite bored with everything except little Gigi (Leslie Caron) and her sly grandmother (Hermione Gingold).

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

One of the most reliable targets for a comedy assault is the Navy. And MGM has a goofy spoof of the wartime service in "Don't Go Near the Water," a CinemaScope-color version of William Brinkley's best seller.

It deals with a World War II public relations outfit stationed on a Pacific island.

Fred Clark, alias "Marblehead," is the commander, a pompus niny. Glen Ford is his long-suffering aide. Keenan Wynn is an arrogant correspondent who thinks he runs the Navy.

There are several women on the island, too, including Anne Francis and Gia Scala.

The comic highlight of the show is Mickey Shaughnessy, who plays a tattoed sailor called Farragut Jones—a "typical" Navy man who is thoroughly "untypical."

Socialite Files Big Lawsuit Against Spouse, Marinites

Mrs. Barbara Barnato, 22, who is suing her millionaire husband Michael for separate maintenance, filed a $100,000 damage suit this week in San Francisco against her estranged husband and her sister-in-law and the latter's husband, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Dixon of Fairfax.

Mrs. Barnato's damage suit claims the Dixons invited her to a Las Vegas resort hotel for a holiday, promising her a "surprise."

The surprise was a summons served as soon as she checked into the Nevada hotel forcing her to appear at a divorce action filed by Barnato in Nevada.

Gloria Dixon is the widow of Peter Barnato, heir to the Kimberly diamond millions who died of cancer in Marin Feb. 22. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thalbert Duncan, formerly of Kent Woodlands. She married her present husband last September.

The defendants, Mrs. Barnato said, in serving her the summons, "deliberately and with calculation entered into an unlawful . . . conspiracy." This caused her to suffer damage to the effect of $100,000, she said.

The complaint continued that Michael recently inherited $500,000 from his father's estate and that Gloria Dixon is believed to have received the same amount left by her late husband, Peter Barnato.

Attends Fund Meet

W. A. Magee of 758 Appleberry drive, Lucas Valley, attended a manager's conference in Denver last week of Financial Industrial Fund, Inc. of which he is San Francisco division manager.

COMEDY RETURNS—The comedy, "Don't Go Near the Water," starring Gia Scala and Glenn Ford, is being revived this weekend at the Tiburon Playhouse along with "Pal Joey," which features Frank Sinatra and Kim Novak.

STRONG BOY—Victor Mature, as the Biblical hero in Cecil B. DeMille's "Samson and Delilah," displays his phenomenal strength by besting the giant Philistine wrestler. The Technicolor spectacle also stars Hedy Lamarr, George Sanders, Angela Lansbury and Henry Wilcoxon. Kirk Douglas in "Ulysses" completes the program which opens Sunday at the Tamalpais Theater in San Anselmo.

Don't Let The Christmas Shopping Rush Kill You

Don't let Christmas shopping kill you!

We're not talking about the rushing about in stores that you're probably doing or carrying too many packages. We're talking about the way you get in and out of your car, on and off the bus, the way you cross the street and the way you drive.

Christmastime is a happy time of the year—but it has certainly become one big rush. The pace of traffic on our highways is tremendous; the crush of traffic in our cities is getting unbelievable.

It takes alertness on the part of both the driver and the pedestrian to get through these crowds safely. Don't trust the other fellow; he's in just as much of a rush as you are, and he might not be careful if you're not.

Getting out of your car on the wrong side can be lethal this time of year. Stepping off the curb without looking can be crippling. Racing out into the street from between cars can permanently affect you. Even a minor accident sort of takes the pleasure out of the Yule season.

And when you're behind the steering wheel, remember how harassed you were on the sidewalk. Give that pedestrian an extra little break, but not his leg.

Fruit Flies Have A Place

It seems safe to say that most Marinites play unwilling host to several fruit flies during the course of a year. That plate of ripe bananas and that dish of ripening persimmons seem to conjure them out of nowhere.

As insects go, these tiny flies are fairly clean and harmless. This is not to say we favor kindness to fruitflies.

But we would like to point out that most fruitflies have some distant cousins working in a university laboratory or engaged in genetic research for the government. They are one of modern science's most valuable tools in the study of heredity.

Drosophila, as the working members of the family are called, are especially valuable in this field because they reproduce with such astonishing rapidity. It is thus possible for scientists to study many hundreds of generations and observe the effects of heredity and mutations which would take thousands of years if observed in humans.

It is quite proper and acceptable, however, to do away with those fruitplate vagrants and the low-types that are attracted by the fruity fumes of wine in glasses. These bums are not to be condoned.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

WHAT ARE YOU LEARNING?

One 6-year-old put his first grade teacher to the test in Colorado not long ago.

After class one day, he went up to her desk and asked: "Could you please tell me what I learned in school today? My daddy always wants to know."

It would not be easy for any of us to make a report on what we learn each day. Few of us realize how much we absorb—for better or for worse—from our associates, our reading and the broadcasts and movies we listen to and see.

Yet each and every one of them makes some impression on the way we think, talk and act.

An immature child may well wonder what he is learning in school day after day. But God expects much more of those beyond childhood. As masters of our own destinies we are accountable for what we allow to shape our lives.

Fill your mind and heart with what is good, true and beautiful and you will learn lessons that will be beneficial for time and eternity.

"The Lord is good to them that hope in Him, to the soul that seeketh Him."
(Lamentations 3:25)

Guide and strengthen me, O Holy Spirit, in the pursuit of truth.

Word Of Advice For Parents Of Children Who Won't Eat: Wait

By FRANCIS STILLEY
For Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — My good wife would like to say a word or two.

She wants to talk about a little subject which often bothers parents.

Meet Joy. Says she:

For those parents who fret and stew because their children refuse to eat, I have just one word of advice. Wait.

It seems like only yesterday we had that problem in our household. Every bite our son got down was the day's big achievement.

Frantically, we consulted pediatricians, neighbors, friends and psychiatrists. Our son's puny appetite was the chief topic at our house.

Now we're having to eat our own words.

As a matter of fact, that is just about all we do get to eat these days. Everything else in the refrigerator, freezer and pantry goes into the bottomless stomach of Brenn, 14.

No longer is it a problem of getting him to eat. It's how to finance his appetite.

From the four bowls of cereal in the morning—while I'm fixing his breakfast — to his final bedtime snack at night he methodically munches his way through the day.

On school days there is a slight letup for a few hours. That, fortunately, gives me time to run to the grocery for fresh loads of eatables. But during the weekends he lives a true hand-to-mouth existence.

Between meals he commutes from his room to the kitchen for apples, bread and butter, pretzels, bananas, peanuts, ice cream bars, cheese and anything else loose.

Brenn is studying, and practicing, nutrition in a high school science class. For home work he had to list everything he ate during a day and compare this with a guide listing the seven basic foods.

It required a considerable feat of memory for the two of us to tote up his own score. Finally it was completed. Brenn compared figures a moment and exclaimed:

"Hey, mom, you know what? I don't eat as much as I'm supposed to!"

Voting Is Way To Insure Rights

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

The executive council of the Ross Valley Teachers' Association wishes to extend to you sincere congratulations from the entire membership of the Ross Valley Teachers' Association for so succinct an analysis of the school tax situation in certain areas of our county.

In particular we refer to Donald G. Davis' column of Oct. 24. We are indeed appreciative of the fact that so many people have taken a decided stand on the urgency of the need for all members of our communities to exercise their right to vote. The franchise is the one sure way to insure this government of, by, and for the people.

Again congratulations and many thanks for the interest evidenced by your staff in this crucial problem.

In your article about us you stated that "the ACLU has been lauded for its upholding of the Bill of Rights by its supporters and denounced as a 'pinko' organization by its detractors."

There has been a great deal of misunderstanding of the aims of ACLU when it has defended people whose views are on the extreme left politically. ACLU has also defended many persons whose views are on the extreme right. In both instances, ACLU is concerned with constitutional freedoms and not with the views of the people involved.

ACLU is essentially a conservative organization, since it is mainly concerned with preserving those freedoms given to us in the Bill of Rights. It is sometimes difficult to maintain these basic freedoms in the light of the great social and political changes of the past two centuries. But maintain them we must.

When judging the ACLU in a specific case the public should not ask "Why is ACLU defending a person who thinks thus and so?" but should ask, "What basic constitutional right is ACLU defending in this case?"

ACLU is not infallible, but it is fulfilling an important public service in trying to preserve the letter and the spirit of the Constitution. Those who call it "pinko" do not seem to be aware of its basic aims.

Some Lax Case Soul Searching

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Within the past few weeks Marin has been stunned by the murder of a little girl and its far-reaching implications. Two families have been mutilated, and two children, to all intents and purposes, have lost their lives: One is under the merciful judgment of the Eternal God; the other, under the mercy of the judgment of man-made courts.

The deed is done, the fact is accomplished. But certainly, no one who resides near the scene of the tragedy can help but feel the mute sorrow of the parents and extend to them, in thought at least, the utmost compassion.

In a community which might be considered almost over-privileged, this writer, at least, has done some soul-searching as to what can be learned from these tragic events, and offers in utmost humility the two following conclusions:

1. That the lines of communication between parents and children no matter how open are often tenuous, and must be nurtured with the utmost intensity. This is not to say that communication will always remain open, but that the effort must be made, and this takes time.

2. That discipline, administered in loving concern, provides a symbol of love and security that nothing else can. This too takes time and also a sensitive awareness to need.

Certainly each one of us stands under the condemnation of the ill use of time, and lack of awareness.

Soon the consciousness of the events so prominent now in the news will die down, and only the two families involved will continue to feel the results of the actions of two bewildered children who themselves did not really know what they were searching for.

It is for us on the periphery to think not in condemnation but in prayerful concern for not only these two families but the entire community as well, that we might be aware of the personal problems of those about us and take the time to perhaps prevent another such tragedy.

Sunny California Misses Something In Not Having White Christmas

We're sunny Californians, all of us, transplanted or otherwise, but we have a strain of snow in us at Christmastime. We'll again miss a white Christmas this year.

Last Christmas we were in sunny California. Sunny, dry California, that is. But the several Christmases prior to that we had snow.

There's nothing like a good German snow for Christmas. Even one Christmas in Paris was without snow. It was cold, but there was no snow, and we had just arrived from California and our thin topcoats were no protection against the dampness of the Seine.

Everyone in Paris looked comfy and were running around buying oysters and looking very Christmasy. We just chattered.

BUT THE OTHER Christmases were in Germany. Where there was real honest-to-goodness snow and good trees and good smelling Christmas cookies.

We got kind of used to it. We would go down to the Marktplatz and buy a Christmas tree. There were all shapes and sizes, and we would haggle a little over the price, finally selecting a six-footer for about a dollar.

We would try and get the six-footer into a Volkswagen and that was pretty funny. We don't remember how we did it, but we did. And we did it without poking out the windows, but I think one of us rode home clutching it. And then took a few days to wash off the pitch and a few months to get the needles out of the car.

THERE WERE cookies, the likes of which we haven't seen since. All shapes and sizes—like the trees. Full of spices.

There were little calendar houses made of cardboard which we could hang against a window, and each day open one of the house's little doors or windows for a surprise and a number showing how far away Christmas was.

There was always the argument whether we would defy the U.S. Army, under whose regulations we lived, and put real candles on our tree JUST the way the Germans did. They seemed to do it, and have no more fatal fire than do other folks who use mostly colored electric lights.

There would be an Army picture window decoration contest, and one of our neighbors wrote, "Bah, Humbug!" in large letters in his window. We don't know what became of him.

All in all Christmas in many ways was just like here in California, except that it was icy cold and there was snow and the smell of smoke in the air. The trees were bare against the sky, and longer shadows were cast from the houses and streetcars and buses. Somehow, it was intimate.

THE DEAD GEESE hung high in the shop entrances along with hare and deer. German friends would plan a Christmas menu of goose, red cabbage and apples. And they made cookies and fancy gingerbread houses.

They always had something of a warming nature for a body to swallow before going out into the cold. There was a pot of hot coffee and bottled eggnog and German brandy.

Tradesfolk would come by for a little something to grease their palms, a worthy tradition.

We can hardly remember how the car spun on the ice, how the trains were late and how even an air-cooled car would not start after being parked out all night.

IT WAS THE HEIGHT of the carnival season that started Nov. 11 and ended with Lent. People hocked furniture to buy costumes and good times. There were big, brawly parades and balls.

And then, after Christmas, there was New Year's and fireworks went off in the vicinity of the Marktplatz.

There was a feeling of joy and good fellowship in the air, as though the whole world was singing.

Do Democrats Know Where They're Going? Depends On Who's Driving

WASHINGTON (AP) — This week in New York Adlai E. Stevenson went looking for a Democratic luncheon at the wrong hotel. He went out to a cab, explained his dilemma to the driver, and asked to be taken to the right one.

Then, Stevenson reported, the driver asked him:

"Don't you Democrats know where the hell you're going?"

The answer to this might be yes or no, depending on where you sit or which Democrat you are.

JUST A FEW days ago the Democratic Advisory Council, made up of Stevenson and some other top Democrats, put out a 10,000-word, 22-point program which the council says the country needs.

This was such a big bundle of ideas it would seem to show the party knows where it's going although, while some points were specific, others looked more like a collection of nice thoughts than a blueprint for action.

But this program was similar to one which the same council put out about this time last year, shortly after the Democrats won overwhelming control of Congress in the 1958 elections.

The leaders of the Democrats in Congress, both Texans, are Lyndon Johnson in the Senate and Sam Rayburn in the House. Neither man wants any part of sitting in on the council.

BUT THE COUNCIL in its 1958 manifesto said hopefully:

"The Democratic victory in the congressional elections this autumn provides our party with great opportunities and responsibilities."

It went on to say it was enumerating the elements of a program it hoped would be adopted during the next two years. But the Democratic-run Congress did a pretty skimpy job of carrying out the program in 1959.

The council recommended big and broad changes in the social security program. Congress didn't make any.

The council recommended new steps in the civil rights field. Congress didn't tackle civil rights bills.

The 1958 document said government spending must be considered wisely but that "it is elementary that a growing nation needs larger public as well as larger private expenditures."

President Eisenhower, wanting to keep expenses down, constantly hit the Democrats on the head with the charge they were spendthrifts. But before the 1959 session of Congress ended Sen. Johnson was proudly saying that the White House consistently had asked for more spending than the Democratic-run Congress allowed.

SO THIS RAISES once again a question asked many times before:

Who is calling the shots for the Democratic party between presidential elections — the Advisory Council or the Democratic leaders in Congress?

The answer, in view of the record, seems to be Johnson and Rayburn.

Although Johnson is being mentioned as a Democratic presidential possibility in 1960, and although all the other would-be Democratic candidates were in New York this week for the party's get-together, Johnson stayed away.

Johnson and Rayburn in 1959 seemed more under Eisenhower's thumb than under the influence of the party big-wigs on the council. They didn't satisfy all congressional Democrats in 1959, but there wasn't any big revolt against them, either.

SO IT MIGHT be concluded that the Democrats in Congress are just as conservative as the Eisenhower administration. To put it another way: the Democratic Council talks a far more liberal line than the Democratic-run Congress followed.

Even former President Truman's performance in New York this week caused puzzlement. Although he said the country needs a liberal Democratic president in 1960, he struck out heatedly against what he called "phony liberals."

Since he didn't even remotely name these phonies, his performance was a little like punching rubber dummies. It gave rise to the thought he was trying to pave the way for nomination of a conservative Democrat in 1960.

Don't Let The Christmas Shopping Rush Kill You

Don't let Christmas shopping kill you!

We're not talking about the rushing about in stores that you're probably doing or carrying too many packages. We're talking about the way you get in and out of your car, on and off the bus, the way you cross the street and the way you drive.

Christmastime is a happy time of the year—but it has certainly become one big rush. The pace of traffic on our highways is tremendous; the crush of traffic in our cities is getting unbelievable.

It takes alertness on the part of both the driver and the pedestrian to get through these crowds safely. Don't trust the other fellow; he's in just as much of a rush as you are, and he might not be careful if you're not.

Getting out of your car on the wrong side can be lethal this time of year. Stepping off the curb without looking can be crippling. Racing out into the street from between cars can permanently affect you. Even a minor accident sort of takes the pleasure out of the Yule season.

And when you're behind the steering wheel, remember how harassed you were on the sidewalk. Give that pedestrian an extra little break, but not his leg.

Fruit Flies Have A Place

It seems safe to say that most Marinites play unwilling host to several fruit flies during the course of a year. That plate of ripe bananas and that dish of ripening persimmons seem to conjure them out of nowhere.

As insects go, these tiny flies are fairly clean and harmless. This is not to say we favor kindness to fruitflies.

But we would like to point out that most fruitflies have some distant cousins working in a university laboratory or engaged in genetic research for the government. They are one of modern science's most valuable tools in the study of heredity.

Drosophila, as the working members of the family are called, are especially valuable in this field because they reproduce with such astonishing rapidity. It is thus possible for scientists to study many hundreds of generations and observe the effects of heredity and mutations which would take thousands of years if observed in humans.

It is quite proper and acceptable, however, to do away with those fruitplate vagrants and the low-types that are attracted by the fruity fumes of wine in glasses. These bums are not to be condoned.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

WHAT ARE YOU LEARNING?

One 6-year-old put his first grade teacher to the test in Colorado not long ago.

After class one day, he went up to her desk and asked: "Could you please tell me what I learned in school today? My daddy always wants to know."

It would not be easy for any of us to make a report on what we learn each day. Few of us realize how much we absorb—for better or for worse—from our associates, our reading and the broadcasts and movies we listen to and see.

Yet each and every one of them makes some impression on the way we think, talk and act.

An immature child may well wonder what he is learning in school day after day. But God expects much more of those beyond childhood. As masters of our own destinies we are accountable for what we allow to shape our lives.

Fill your mind and heart with what is good, true and beautiful and you will learn lessons that will be beneficial for time and eternity.

Word Of Advice For Parents Of Children Who Won't Eat: Wait

By FRANCIS STILLEY
For Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — My good wife would like to say a word or two.

She wants to talk about a little subject which often bothers parents.

Meet Joy. Says she:

For those parents who fret and stew because their children refuse to eat, I have just one word of advice. Wait.

It seems like only yesterday we had that problem in our household. Every bite our son got down was the day's big achievement.

Frantically, we consulted pediatricians, neighbors, friends and psychiatrists. Our son's puny appetite was the chief topic at our house.

Now we're having to eat our own words.

As a matter of fact, that is just about all we do get to eat these days. Everything else in the refrigerator, freezer and pantry goes into the bottomless stomach of Brenn, 14.

No longer is it a problem of getting him to eat. It's how to finance his appetite.

From the four bowls of cereal in the morning—while I'm fixing his breakfast — to his final bedtime snack at night he methodically munches his way through the day.

On school days there is a slight letup for a few hours. That, fortunately, gives me time to run to the grocery for fresh loads of eatables. But during the weekends he lives a true hand-to-mouth existence.

Between meals he commutes from his room to the kitchen for apples, bread and butter, pretzels, bananas, peanuts, ice cream bars, cheese and anything else loose.

Brenn is studying, and practicing, nutrition in a high school science class. For home work he had to list everything he ate during a day and compare this with a guide listing the seven basic foods.

It required a considerable feat of memory for the two of us to tote up his own score. Finally it was completed. Brenn compared figures a moment and exclaimed:

"Hey, mom, you know what? I don't eat as much as I'm supposed to!"

The executive council of the Ross Valley Teachers' Association wishes to extend to you sincere congratulations from the entire membership of the Ross Valley Teachers' Association for so succinct an analysis of the school tax situation in certain areas of our county.

In particular we refer to Donald G. Davis' column of Oct. 24. We are indeed appreciative of the fact that so many people have taken a decided stand on the urgency of the need for all members of our communities to exercise their right to vote. Ross Town Funds Voted For Summer Activities

The town of Ross will contribute $450 to the summer activities program sponsored by the Ross Parent-Teacher Assn.

Four members of the Ross Town Council approved the appropriation at last night's meeting, reported William W. Cole, town clerk.

The proposal passed with the provision that Ross School trustees contribute $550 to the summer program.

Representatives from the Parent-Teacher Assn. appeared before the Ross Town Council Nov. 12 requesting financial help for a summer recreation program. The four week session would include educational and recreational activities.

Another proposition brought up at the Nov. 12 meeting by Bruce Selfridge, chairman of the street committee, was approved at last night's meeting. One thousand dollars is to be spent in the construction of five turn-outs on Upper road.

Two ordinances were introduced at the meeting. One would limit the heights of buildings of residential, commercial and community cultural center to a height of 30 feet; the second is a fire prevention code issued by National Board of Fire underwriters.

The ordinances will be voted on at the next town council meeting Jan. 14.

Electronics Firm Given Sewer Permit

Permission was granted the Fairchild Semiconductor Corp. to start immediately laying a 10-inch cast iron sewer line to the treatment plan of the Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District at a district board meeting last night.

The line will run from the corporation's 10-acre plant site in northern San Rafael opposite Terra Linda. Julius Blank, chief of engineering services for the company, said there will be partial treatment of the waste products to extract acids before they leave the factory.

Permission to lay the pipe was given before formal annexation to the district because of the presumed imminence of the rainy season.

The district directors completed formalities of annexation to the district of their own treatment plant, of the Marinwood Shopping Center and of the county farm.

Woodacre Club To Dedicate Building Tomorrow Night

The Woodacre Improvement Club will hold dedication services for its new clubhouse tomorrow at 6 p.m.

The former clubhouse, a landmark as the original Maillard residence and as the Woodacre Hotel, burned to the ground more than a year ago.

The evening will begin with a potluck dinner followed by a short business meeting for the election of officers, president John Keilty announced. State Sen. John F. McCarthy will be guest speaker and Mrs. Maude Gardener will speak on the history of the club.

Space in the new $50,000 building has been rented to the Marin County Library for a Woodacre branch.

Sausalito City Council members apparently are going to start celebrating Christmas early.

The council meeting scheduled for next Tuesday has been canceled, City Clerk Amelie Smith announced today. The reason: There will not be a quorum.

John was the only son of Air Force Lt. Col. Kent J. Richens and Muriel Richens of 94 La Brea way. They have four daughters. Colonel Richens is now stationed in Iran. The family moved here from Oregon about a year ago.

Ross Town Funds Voted For Summer Activities

The town of Ross will contribute $450 to the summer activities program sponsored by the Ross Parent-Teacher Assn.

Four members of the Ross Town Council approved the appropriation at last night's meeting, reported William W. Cole, town clerk.

The proposal passed with the provision that Ross School trustees contribute $550 to the summer program.

Representatives from the Parent-Teacher Assn. appeared before the Ross Town Council Nov. 12 requesting financial help for a summer recreation program. The four week session would include educational and recreational activities.

Another proposition brought up at the Nov. 12 meeting by Bruce Selfridge, chairman of the street committee, was approved at last night's meeting. One thousand dollars is to be spent in the construction of five turn-outs on Upper road.

Two ordinances were introduced at the meeting. One would limit the heights of buildings of residential, commercial and community cultural center to a height of 30 feet; the second is a fire prevention code issued by National Board of Fire underwriters.

The ordinances will be voted on at the next town council meeting Jan. 14.

The U. N. came up with a vote "deploring" Red Chinese aggression in Tibet, which is about as effective as hunting lions with a water pistol. The delegates from Ireland and Malaya claimed it was a farce for the Commies to pretend they were "liberating" the country. Tibet is the land of Hilton's fictitious Shangri-La . . . a land of mountains, goats and people who are mainly interested in minding their own business. If it is oppressed by Wall Street Imperialism, the Monks and Lamas of the hills have been too busy with their studies to get the word. Tibetans have never encouraged foreigners, and the Reds may find them tougher to swallow than an unpeeled pineapple. But the motto seems to be . . . and so Tibet.

Mantner, a Redwood High School language teacher, cited the need for city council action to divert the route of a freeway which under the state Division of Highways proposes to run along the route of Highway 101 through the center of Novato.

"I remember in Sausalito many years ago when their freeway was also proposed through the city," Mautner said. "It was the organized effort of the city—through their city council—which won the fight to divert the freeway itself."

Loewen, Novato restaurant owner, said he was for "getting the most out of our tax dollar and for the cleanest possible government."

All four speakers urged that industry be brought into Novato as a means of broadening the tax base and supplying employment for local residents.

ANOTHER HUNG JURY

Stinger Test Proposed For Drinking Suspect

Drunken driving suspect Joseph E. Foley, 31, who got off with a hung jury (11 to one for acquittal) last October, got another hung jury last night. But this time it was 11 to one for conviction.

Dist. Atty. William O. Weissich said in an effort to avoid a third trial, suggested to defense attorney Arthur Andreas that Foley submit to a scientific test to see if four stingers add up to .184 alcoholic content in the blood. Andreas said he would like to think it over before the next court appearance, set for 1:30 p.m. a week from today.

The jury started deliberating at 11:30 a.m. yesterday. Foreman Robert Coursey of Novato said the first ballot showed 10 to two for conviction, and the next ballot 11 to one for conviction.

That vote remained unchanged from about noon until 5 p.m., when Judge Richard M. Sims of Marin Municipal Court dismissed the jury.

The lone holdout, Carroll W. Galley of 351 G street, San Rafael, said he found no fault with the theory of drunken driving or the district attorney's use of tests conducted on five "guinea pigs." But Galley said the evidence was all circumstantial, and the application of the tests to Foley created a reasonable doubt in his mind.

Foley testified he ate a steak or chop dinner at the Glad Hand in Sausalito last Aug. 23. From 11 p.m. to about 11:45, he drank four stingers at No Name bar, then hopped on his motor scooter and took off down Sausalito lateral. About midnight his scooter hit gravel and toppled over. Foley was knocked unconscious and seriously injured.

A test taken about 1 a.m. showed a blood alcohol content of .184. But the defense attorney argued that at midnight the alcohol had not yet been absorbed and, therefore Foley was not at that hour intoxicated.

After the first trial in October Weissich and Dr. John Manwaring, pathologist, took four young county employees and a fifth man to Sausalito for a scientific experiment. They all ate a big meal at the Glad Hand. Two then plunked themselves before the No Name bar and had four stingers. The other three went to the Sausalito Police Station where they drank stingers mixed by Weissich himself, using the formula (two shots brandy to one creme de menthe) which Foley said he drank.

Dr. Manwaring took blood tests of the five men periodically.

Those who drank at the bar showed little or no effect. Their blood alcohol never reached .100. Those who drank at the police station got up to as high as .135 and were in no condition to drive. But only one was actually reeling driunk, said Weissich.

On the basis of these experiments, Dr. Manwaring concluded that if Foley showed a blood alcohol content of .184 at 1 a.m. he must have had an alcoholic content of about .170 at midnight.

Weissich wants Foley to submit to a similar experiment, eating a heavy meal, then drinking four stingers from 11 to 11:45 p.m.. If at midnight, his alcoholic content is below .150, but at 1 a.m., has risen to .184, the district attorney said he will dismiss the charge, he said.

"We want to avoid a third trial if at all possible, because they are expensive," said Weissich. "All we want to do is seek out the truth."

Colts Favored To Cinch Title Tomorrow

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A favored Baltimore Colt football team arrives in town today, determined to whip the Los Angeles Rams tomorrow and escape any possible playoff for the Western Division title of the National Football League.

The defending Colts are picked by as much as 12 points to inflict the 10th defeat of the season on the Rams in the final game for each in the regular NFL season.

The struggle, with some 60,000 expected in Memorial Coliseum, will be televised nationally by the Columbia Broadcasting System, with this area for 150 miles blacked out.

The Colts, with an 8-3 record, can gain clear title if they win. But if they lose—and the San Francisco 49ers win over Green Bay and the Chicago Bears take Detroit—there will be a three-way tie for the division crown.

The Colts take the field with their usual troops.

That means the Rams will have to contend with quarterback Johnny Unitas, halfback Lenny Moore, fullback Alan Ameche and such dangerous pass-catchers as Ray Berry and Jim Mutscheller.

The Rams have absentees due to injuries. Their offensive unit will have Billy Wade at quarterback, with Joe Marconi replacing Ollie Matson as the starting fullback.

Jon Arnett and Jim Phillips go at halfback, with Del Shofner and Leon Clarke on the flanks.

Les Richter again will be pressed into dual duty as offensive center and part-time linebacker, with rookie John Guzik spelling him at the latter position.

Lamar Lundy has been shifted back to defensive end, and veteran secondary men Don Burrough and Will Sherman have been replaced by rookies Ed Meador and Tom Frankhauser.

"This Ram squad has not and will not quit," Richter declared. "The best thing we can do is concentrate on the Colts and then start looking forward to next year."

"The Rams are a good football team and can explode," Marchetti said. "We'd be stupid to think it will not be a tough game."

The Rams could remember one encouraging fact. The Colts were beaten last month by the Washington Redskins, who have won only two other games this season.

ALONG MARIN'S SPORTS TRAIL

By JIM GILMARTIN

Bowling Enjoying A Fantastic Boom, Especially In Marin County

That ever-increasing rumble you hear echoing through the county every day isn't a sonic boom. It's a bowling boom and it seems the bowling bug has created an epidemic. Everybody — but EVERYBODY — is rolling down the lanes these days.

It wasn't long ago when bowling was all but dead in Marin. Today it's running away from other sports as the county's and the nation's greatest participant sport.

And its fantastic popularity was brought about simply, but expensively—give the citizens a decent recreational plant and they'll flock to it.

We have two of northern California's most plush bowling beauties in Greenbrae Lanes and Country Club Bowl in San Rafael.

And don't ask the owners "How's business?" They haven't got time to answer you.

We have a sneaking hunch that women have something to do with the bowling boom. In the not too distant past the gentle sex wouldn't be caught dead in a bowling alley. Today they flock to the lanes because the bowling proprietors have cleaned house and built an appealing recreational plant. No dummies, the owners have gone so far as to providing a nursery so mom can dump the kids for an hour or so and roll off a couple of pounds.

Both Greenbrae and Country Club are doing great, as figures we will quote later will prove. Is there room for another bowling house in the county? Sure! The prominent William Nave family of San Rafael is in the process of building another plush, 32-lane house near Hamilton Field. Loads of customers in northern Marin, they figure.

Yesterday we dropped in to visit Tom Coates at Greenbrae Lanes and Dave Rivera at Country Club to check up on the action. Here's their report:

Greenbrae (32 lanes) has 27 leagues in action each week, with 1,235 league bowlers. The breakdown shows 870 men and 365 women.

Country Club (40 lanes) has 29 leagues with 1100 men and 230 women league bowlers. Also, there are 16 teams bowling in a junior league each Saturday morning. Rivera proudly reports. This handles approximately 80 children in the 9 to 17 age bracket. Coca Cola is footing the bill.

These figures, of 2,575 league bowlers in Marin do not include the open classification bowlers like your rotund correspondent who bowl just for kicks.

We would guess that Greenbrae and Country Club record a total of approximately 20,000 games per week, and that's a pretty accurate estimate.

So booming has bowling become in Marin that Tony Mascaro, a well-known keg artist, has opened an exclusive bowling shop just down the street from the Country Club. It's the only shop of its kind in the county and it features a Brunswick precision bowling ball drilling machine — a $2,000 item. They'll fit you with a ball while you wait, where in the past the order of a ball would take 10 to 14 days.

Operated by champ kegler Don Bickford, the shop has just about everything a bowler needs . . . balls, bags, shirts, slacks, skirts and a complete line of accessories, such as lighters, ties, cuff links, earrings, etc. Mascaro's shop also has its own shirt lettering service and a special trophy section.

We have a hunch the most popular items under the Christmas tree will be bowling paraphernalia. Man, the sport's booming!

DEAR SANTA: There are only 10 more shopping days until Christmas, so we hope you will hustle out and fill this gift list for some needy sports people . . .

For Mr. and Mrs. Willie Howard Mays Jr.—A home in the San Francisco Bay Area. Ross is about their financial speed.

For John J. "Bullpen" Connolly—A loving cup from Bill Rigney.

For John Brodie—A "Gourmet Guide" on how to eat inflated pigskin.

For 49ers and Giants alike—Shorter schedules.

For Pete Elliott—Eleven 230-pound Straight A students and/or an easier schedule.

For Drake High—A varsity football victory.

For the 49ers—A television announcer with 20-20 vision.

For Johnny Antonelli — A sailboat so he'll learn to enjoy S. F. breezes.

For Mike McKeever—Bursitis of the elbow.

Well, so much for Christmas presents.

BECHTEL's George Keeney says sports writers covering last Saturday's 49er-Colt game analyzed the game, chewed it up and spit it out and still did not dig up the real story behind that defeat.

Here it is, says George: "John Brodie is color blind. How could the writers have missed this? The guy was throwing at those white shirts just like they were red, and this can be the only answer."

Keeney added: "Seriously, I'll be very much surprised if Brodie is with us next season —or even in pro football.

"After Saturday I, for one, would be just as happy if he'd hang 'em up and turn to golf full time from here on in. At least he wouldn't be in danger of having any of his putts intercepted."

NEWS SOMETIMES takes quite a while to reach us, but the fact a Marin golfer shot a hole-in-one on Thanksgiving Day is still worthy of publication.

The ace shooter is Jim Levien of Marinwood who accomplished the feat at the Diablo Golf and Country Club with three witnesses—Leo Calestini, Dave Thurm and Bob Brown. Levien's ace was a 194-yard blast with a two-iron.

Hickey Raps 49er Blocking; 'It's Awful'

"Fundamentals, not fancy plays, win football games," Coach Red Hickey said when his 49ers were leading the Western Division a month ago and now he ruefully asserts that the team has forgotten how to block.

"Our blocking is awful," the forthright Hickey said today while preparing for Sunday's game with the Green Bay Packers. "And why stop there? We haven't been passing or catching, either."

One of the biggest slumps in the forward wall has been turned in by Frank Morze, the broad offensive center. Hickey plans to replace him with Karl Rubke this Sunday.

"Nope, Morze ain't blocking. I don't know what's happened to him and he doesn't either," Hickey declared.

A San Francisco sportswriter yesterday published a list of figures which show how the 49ers have been running out of gas in their last four games. Take a look:

BAD SLUMP

In their first seven games, San Francisco outrushed the opposition by 1,366 yards to 941. In the last four contests, the opponents have piled up 803 yards overland to 291. San Francisco had registered 124 first downs to the enemy's 122 in the first seven tilts. But for the last four, the other side has collected 48 more first downs than the home team.

Joe Perry, the iron horse fullback, has been going along with his usual share of aches and pains this year and hasn't been able to rip off the yardage as he used to. But Hickey feels that Perry still can go if there is somebody around to open a hole.

PERRY HURT

Perry is expected to be out of the starting lineup because of a pulled leg muscle which has prevented him from running all week. In his spot will go C. R. Roberts, former Southern California star who has seen service with the New York Giants and Pittsburgh Steelers.

"Roberts has looked good in practice, but we don't know how he'll be in game conditions," Hickey said.

The contest remains a big one for the 49ers even though they look dead on paper. Trailing Baltimore by one game, their only hope of forcing a playoff is for the battered Los Angeles Rams to upset the Colts while Green Bay bows in Kezar Stadium.

Baylor Stars In S.F. Contest; Poor Turnout

Elgin Baylor scored 29 points last night while leading Minneapolis to a 98-86 win over Syracuse in a National Basketball Assn. game at the San Francisco Cow Palace.

The game drew far fewer fans than were expected. The Cow Palace, which seats almost 16,000, had only 4,462 paying customers.

A stronger indication of how professional basketball might draw in California can be expected Dec. 20 when Minneapolis meets the Philadelphia Warriors and Wilt Chamberlain in San Francisco.

The Lakers played two games in S. F. last season. The first one, against the Boston Celtics, drew 13,000 fans, but a later game with Cincinnati drew only 3,000.

The Lakers and Syracuse were on even terms for a quarter, but after that Minneapolis drew away.

The Nationals' big scorers—Dolph Schayes and George Yardley — had a cold night. Schayes, the league's all-time high scorer, hit only 2 for 17 from the floor. Yardley, a former Stanford star, hit on only 4 of 23 field goal tries.

Rudy LaRusso, the Lakers' fine rookie from Dartmouth, tallied 16. Big Johnny Kerr, Syracuse's 6-10 rebounder, paced the Nationals with 15.

Paul Seymour, the Syracuse coach, lodged an official protest during the fourth quarter. He claimed the third quarter hadn't run its full 12 minutes. Officials replied that since the arena's main clock is set up for 20-minute halves, the first four minutes of each quarter were kept on a watch on the timekeeper's table and the final eight minutes on the big clock.

Seymour's protest goes to the league offices for disposition.

Rotarians Help Sausalito Junior Tennis Program

Sausalito's summer tennis program for children received another boost yesterday when the city's Rotary Club disclosed it had donated $50 to help pay for tournament trophies.

According to John Minton, chairman of the Sausalito Recreation Commission, the donation will be applied toward trophies to be offered in the 1960 Junior Tennis Tournament. In the two previous years of the program, the city has budgeted a like amount for the awards.

Disclosure of the donation came from Rotary President Dr. R. B. Mackenzie, Minton said. The club will counsel the Recreation Commission on exactly how it wishes the trophy donation applied.

Shark Caught In Sacramento River

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A three-foot fish caught in the Sacramento River this week was a dog-fish, a type of shark, a fish expert said yesterday.

Leo Shapovalav, Fish and Game Department biologist, theorized that a fisherman caught the salt water fish in Suisun or San Francisco Bay and released it in the river.

Broncs Roll Over S. F. State, 69-54

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Santa Clara rolled easily over San Francisco State last night 69-54, handing the Gators their fourth straight loss of the season.

Frank Sobrero paced the Broncs with 16 points. Jim Caranica led the losers with 13, tying the Broncs' Jim Russi. Santa Clara led 33-15 at halftime.

No major northern California games are scheduled tonight.

What's Wrong With Rams? Ex-Star Says 'Sid Gillman'

PALO ALTO (AP)—Ask Tom Fears what's wrong with the Los Angeles Rams and he answers: "Sid Gillman."

Fears, who once played for the Rams, made his remarks in an interview.

Gillman, in Los Angeles, was not immediately available for comment.

The former great end, here to watch the Green Bay Packers prepare for their game with the 49ers in San Francisco Sunday, says:

"I realize that a guy doesn't make friends when he says just what he thinks, but I've played with the Rams, I've always watched them and I've been close to players and former players.

"The first year Gillman coached us, we all thought he was a good coach. The second year, he changed completely. He became a tyrant.

"Now I realize a coach doesn't have to be a nice guy to have the respect of his players. Frank Leahy was a rough man at Notre Dame, but his players respected him. Wally Butts was a tough guy at Georgia, but he had respect. Gillman is tough, but he doesn't have any respect. Why? Because his players don't trust him."

Fears admitted that he and Gillman haven't been friendly since the former UCLA star left the Rams during the 1956 season.

"He told Norm Van Brocklin and Tank Younger that he was counting on them and then he put 'em on the bench. He told Andy Robustelli he needed him and then he traded Andy away.

"The players know what's going on and they just don't trust Gillman.

"I don't think that he isn't good technically. Gillman has good plays and good defenses. But he doesn't have the respect of his players.

"The Rams have the finest balanced material I've ever seen. They're great in the line and they're great in the backfield. They're strong on offense and they're strong on defense.

"But just look at their record—two wins and nine losses.

"Gillman has had the longest tenure of any Ram coach, the finest material and the worst record."

M. V. Quint Upsets Twin Cities Boys

Mark O'Brien scored eight points and Chris Schuepbach contributed seven last night as they led the Mill Valley Boys Club basketball team to a 37-35 upset over Twin Cities at Tamalpais High School gymnasium.

High scoring honors for the game, however, went to the losers' Dave Auerbach who tallied 16.

Pittsburgh Gives Bobby Layne A Lifetime Contract

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—Quarterback Bobby Layne, closing out his 12th season in the National Football League, signed a "lifetime" contract yesterday with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Whatever the number of seasons the veteran signal-caller may have left in him, the contract calls for them all to be played with the Steelers. Salary terms were not disclosed.

ALONG MARIN'S SPORTS TRAIL

Bowling Enjoying A Fantastic Boom, Especially In Marin County

That ever-increasing rumble you hear echoing through the county every day isn't a sonic boom. It's a bowling boom and it seems the bowling bug has created an epidemic. Everybody — but EVERYBODY — is rolling down the lanes these days.

It wasn't long ago when bowling was all but dead in Marin. Today it's running away from other sports as the county's and the nation's greatest participant sport.

And its fantastic popularity was brought about simply, but expensively—give the citizens a decent recreational plant and they'll flock to it.

We have two of northern California's most plush bowling beauties in Greenbrae Lanes and Country Club Bowl in San Rafael.

And don't ask the owners "How's business?" They haven't got time to answer you.

We have a sneaking hunch that women have something to do with the bowling boom. In the not too distant past the gentle sex wouldn't be caught dead in a bowling alley. Today they flock to the lanes because the bowling proprietors have cleaned house and built an appealing recreational plant. No dummies, the owners have gone so far as to providing a nursery so mom can dump the kids for an hour or so and roll off a couple of pounds.

Both Greenbrae and Country Club are doing great, as figures we will quote later will prove. Is there room for another bowling house in the county? Sure! The prominent William Nave family of San Rafael is in the process of building another plush, 32-lane house near Hamilton Field. Loads of customers in northern Marin, they figure.

Yesterday we dropped in to visit Tom Coates at Greenbrae Lanes and Dave Rivera at Country Club to check up on the action. Here's their report:

Greenbrae (32 lanes) has 27 leagues in action each week, with 1,235 league bowlers. The breakdown shows 870 men and 365 women.

Country Club (40 lanes) has 29 leagues with 1100 men and 230 women league bowlers. Also, there are 16 teams bowling in a junior league each Saturday morning, Rivera proudly reports. This handles approximately 80 children in the 9 to 17 age bracket. Coca Cola is footing the bill.

These figures, of 2,575 league bowlers in Marin do not include the open classification bowlers like your rotund correspondent who bowl just for kicks.

We would guess that Greenbrae and Country Club record a total of approximately 20,000 games per week, and that's a pretty accurate estimate.

So booming has bowling become in Marin that Tony Mascaro, a well-known keg artist, has opened an exclusive bowling shop just down the street from the Country Club. It's the only shop of its kind in the county and it features a Brunswick precision bowling ball drilling machine — a $2,000 item. They'll fit you with a ball while you wait, where in the past the order of a ball would take 10 to 14 days.

Operated by champ kegler Don Bickford, the shop has just about everything a bowler needs . . . balls, bags, shirts, slacks, skirts and a complete line of accessories, such as lighters, ties, cuff links, earrings, etc. Mascaro's shop also has its own shirt lettering service and a special trophy section.

We have a hunch the most popular items under the Christmas tree will be bowling paraphernalia. Man, the sport's booming!

DEAR SANTA: There are only 10 more shopping days until Christmas, so we hope you will hustle out and fill this gift list for some needy sports people . . .

For Mr. and Mrs. Willie Howard Mays Jr.—A home in the San Francisco Bay Area. Ross is about their financial speed.

For John J. "Bullpen" Connolly—A loving cup from Bill Rigney.

For John Brodie—A "Gourmet Guide" on how to eat inflated pigskin.

For 49ers and Giants alike—Shorter schedules.

For Pete Elliott—Eleven 230-pound Straight A students and/or an easier schedule.

For Drake High—A varsity football victory.

For the 49ers—A television announcer with 20-20 vision.

For Johnny Antonelli — A sailboat so he'll learn to enjoy S. F. breezes.

For Mike McKeever—Bursitis of the elbow.

Well, so much for Christmas presents.

BECHTEL's George Keeney says sports writers covering last Saturday's 49er-Colt game analyzed the game, chewed it up and spit it out and still did not dig up the real story behind that defeat.

Here it is, says George: "John Brodie is color blind. How could the writers have missed this? The guy was throwing at those white shirts just like they were red, and this can be the only answer."

Keeney added: "Seriously, I'll be very much surprised if Brodie is with us next season —or even in pro football.

"After Saturday I, for one, would be just as happy if he'd hang 'em up and turn to golf full time from here on in. At least he wouldn't be in danger of having any of his putts intercepted."

NEWS SOMETIMES takes quite a while to reach us, but the fact a Marin golfer shot a hole-in-one on Thanksgiving Day is still worthy of publication.

The ace shooter is Jim Levien of Marinwood who accomplished the feat at the Diablo Golf and Country Club with three witnesses—Leo Calestini, Dave Thurm and Bob Brown. Levien's ace was a 194-yard blast with a two-iron.

Colts Favored To Cinch Title Tomorrow

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A favored Baltimore Colt football team arrives in town today, determined to whip the Los Angeles Rams tomorrow and escape any possible playoff for the Western Division title of the National Football League.

The defending Colts are picked by as much as 12 points to inflict the 10th defeat of the season on the Rams in the final game for each in the regular NFL season.

The struggle, with some 60,000 expected in Memorial Coliseum, will be televised nationally by the Columbia Broadcasting System, with this area for 150 miles blacked out.

The Colts, with an 8-3 record, can gain clear title if they win. But if they lose—and the San Francisco 49ers win over Green Bay and the Chicago Bears take Detroit—there will be a three-way tie for the division crown.

The Colts take the field with their usual troops.

That means the Rams will have to contend with quarterback Johnny Unitas, halfback Lenny Moore, fullback Alan Ameche and such dangerous pass-catchers as Ray Berry and Jim Mutscheller.

The Rams have absentees due to injuries. Their offensive unit will have Billy Wade at quarterback, with Joe Marconi replacing Ollie Matson as the starting fullback.

Jon Arnett and Jim Phillips go at halfback, with Del Shofner and Leon Clarke on the flanks.

Les Richter again will be pressed into dual duty as offensive center and part-time linebacker, with rookie John Guzik spelling him at the latter position.

Lamar Lundy has been shifted back to defensive end, and veteran secondary men Don Burrough and Will Sherman have been replaced by rookies Ed Meador and Tom Frankhauser.

"This Ram squad has not and will not quit," Richter declared. "The best thing we can do is concentrate on the Colts and then start looking forward to next year."

"The Rams are a good football team and can explode," Marchetti said. "We'd be stupid to think it will not be a tough game."

The Rams could remember one encouraging fact. The Colts were beaten last month by the Washington Redskins, who have won only two other games this season.

Hickey Raps 49er Blocking; 'It's Awful'

"Fundamentals, not fancy plays, win football games," Coach Red Hickey said when his 49ers were leading the Western Division a month ago and now he ruefully asserts that the team has forgotten how to block.

"Our blocking is awful," the forthright Hickey said today while preparing for Sunday's game with the Green Bay Packers. "And why stop there? We haven't been passing or catching, either."

One of the biggest slumps in the forward wall has been turned in by Frank Morze, the broad offensive center. Hickey plans to replace him with Karl Rubke this Sunday.

"Nope, Morze ain't blocking. I don't know what's happened to him and he doesn't either," Hickey declared.

BAD SLUMP

In their first seven games, San Francisco outrushed the opposition by 1,366 yards to 941. In the last four contests, the opponents have piled up 803 yards overland to 291. San Francisco had registered 124 first downs to the enemy's 122 in the first seven tilts. But for the last four, the other side has collected 48 more first downs than the home team.

Joe Perry, the iron horse fullback, has been going along with his usual share of aches and pains this year and hasn't been able to rip off the yardage as he used to. But Hickey feels that Perry still can go if there is somebody around to open a hole.

PERRY HURT

Perry is expected to be out of the starting lineup because of a pulled leg muscle which has prevented him from running all week. In his spot will go C. R. Roberts, former Southern California star who has seen service with the New York Giants and Pittsburgh Steelers.

"Roberts has looked good in practice, but we don't know how he'll be in game conditions," Hickey said.

The contest remains a big one for the 49ers even though they look dead on paper. Trailing Baltimore by one game, their only hope of forcing a playoff is for the battered Los Angeles Rams to upset the Colts while Green Bay bows in Kezar Stadium.

Baylor Stars In S.F. Contest; Poor Turnout

Elgin Baylor scored 29 points last night while leading Minneapolis to a 98-86 win over Syracuse in a National Basketball Assn. game at the San Francisco Cow Palace.

The game drew far fewer fans than were expected. The Cow Palace, which seats almost 16,000, had only 4,462 paying customers.

A stronger indication of how professional basketball might draw in California can be expected Dec. 20 when Minneapolis meets the Philadelphia Warriors and Wilt Chamberlain in San Francisco.

The Lakers played two games in S. F. last season. The first one, against the Boston Celtics, drew 13,000 fans, but a later game with Cincinnati drew only 3,000.

The Lakers and Syracuse were on even terms for a quarter, but after that Minneapolis drew away.

The Nationals' big scorers—Dolph Schayes and George Yardley — had a cold night. Schayes, the league's all-time high scorer, hit only 2 for 17 from the floor. Yardley, a former Stanford star, hit on only 4 of 23 field goal tries.

Rudy LaRusso, the Lakers' fine rookie from Dartmouth, tallied 16. Big Johnny Kerr, Syracuse's 6-10 rebounder, paced the Nationals with 15.

Paul Seymour, the Syracuse coach, lodged an official protest during the fourth quarter. He claimed the third quarter hadn't run its full 12 minutes. Officials replied that since the arena's main clock is set up for 20-minute halves, the first four minutes of each quarter were kept on a watch on the timekeeper's table and the final eight minutes on the big clock.

Seymour's protest goes to the league offices for disposition.

Rotarians Help Sausalito Junior Tennis Program

Sausalito's summer tennis program for children received another boost yesterday when the city's Rotary Club disclosed it had donated $50 to help pay for tournament trophies.

According to John Minton, chairman of the Sausalito Recreation Commission, the donation will be applied toward trophies to be offered in the 1960 Junior Tennis Tournament. In the two previous years of the program, the city has budgeted a like amount for the awards.

Disclosure of the donation came from Rotary President Dr. R. B. Mackenzie, Minton said. The club will counsel the Recreation Commission on exactly how it wishes the trophy donation applied.

Shark Caught In Sacramento River

SACRAMENTO (AP)—A three-foot fish caught in the Sacramento River this week was a dog-fish, a type of shark, a fish expert said yesterday.

Leo Shapovalav, Fish and Game Department biologist, theorized that a fisherman caught the salt water fish in Suisun or San Francisco Bay and released it in the river.

Broncs Roll Over S. F. State, 69-54

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Santa Clara rolled easily over San Francisco State last night 69-54, handing the Gators their fourth straight loss of the season.

Frank Sobrero paced the Broncs with 16 points. Jim Caranica led the losers with 13, tying the Broncs' Jim Russi. Santa Clara led 33-15 at halftime.

No major northern California games are scheduled tonight.

M. V. Quint Upsets Twin Cities Boys

Mark O'Brien scored eight points and Chris Schuepbach contributed seven last night as they led the Mill Valley Boys Club basketball team to a 37-35 upset over Twin Cities at Tamalpais High School gymnasium.

High scoring honors for the game, however, went to the losers' Dave Auerbach who tallied 16.

L. A. COACH BLASTED

What's Wrong With Rams? Ex-Star Says 'Sid Gillman'

PALO ALTO (AP)—Ask Tom Fears what's wrong with the Los Angeles Rams and he answers: "Sid Gillman."

Fears, who once played for the Rams, made his remarks in an interview.

Gillman, in Los Angeles, was not immediately available for comment.

The former great end, here to watch the Green Bay Packers prepare for their game with the 49ers in San Francisco Sunday, says:

"I realize that a guy doesn't make friends when he says just what he thinks, but I've played with the Rams, I've always watched them and I've been close to players and former players.

"The first year Gillman coached us, we all thought he was a good coach. The second year, he changed completely. He became a tyrant.

"Now I realize a coach doesn't have to be a nice guy to have the respect of his players. Frank Leahy was a rough man at Notre Dame, but his players respected him. Wally Butts was a tough guy at Georgia, but he had respect. Gillman is tough, but he doesn't have any respect. Why? Because his players don't trust him."

Fears admitted that he and Gillman haven't been friendly since the former UCLA star left the Rams during the 1956 season.

"He told Norm Van Brocklin and Tank Younger that he was counting on them and then he put 'em on the bench. He told Andy Robustelli he needed him and then he traded Andy away.

"The players know what's going on and they just don't trust Gillman.

"I don't think that he isn't good technically. Gillman has good plays and good defenses. But he doesn't have the respect of his players.

"The Rams have the finest balanced material I've ever seen. They're great in the line and they're great in the backfield. They're strong on offense and they're strong on defense.

"But just look at their record—two wins and nine losses.

"Gillman has had the longest tenure of any Ram coach, the finest material and the worst record."

Pittsburgh Gives Bobby Layne A Lifetime Contract

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—Quarterback Bobby Layne, closing out his 12th season in the National Football League, signed a "lifetime" contract yesterday with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Whatever the number of seasons the veteran signal-caller may have left in him, the contract calls for them all to be played with the Steelers. Salary terms were not disclosed.

A preview of outstanding teams and individual stars in the Marin County Athletic League basketball season will be on display tonight and tomorrow as the new league presents its first annual tournament at the Redwood High School gymnasium.

Three games tonight and five more tomorrow will give local fans a good idea of what to expect in the league's championship season which begins in January.

Only material prize in this tournament is a perpetual trophy for the champion.

Athletic Directors of the six MCAL schools will serve on a panel to select the five outstanding players in the tourney, but they will not receive any prize.

Tonight's opener between Drake and San Rafael will not count in the standings, but the other two will. Drake and S. BUCK SHAW TO RETIRE AFTER 1960 SEASON

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League announced today that Coach Lawrence T. "Buck" Shaw has been rehired for the 1960 season.

Terms were not disclosed.

The silver-haired 60-year-old Shaw said he was "indeed happy" to be asked to return. He made it clear, however, he would retire from the coaching profession at the end of the 1960 season. The former Notre Dame star lineman has been coaching since 1922.

Quarterback Norm Van Brocklin would be his likely successor.

"It is a distinct pleasure," Shaw declared, "to return as head coach for the Eagles for the 1960 season which will be my last as a football coach. This 1959 Eagles' team has great potential and is a championship team in the making.

"But more than that, they are a wonderful group of boys and it is my pleasure to coach them. They have tredous spirit and give all they have. No coach can ask for more."

Shaw took over the Eagles in 1958 after nine years as head coach of San Francisco 49ers and two years as mentor of the Air Force Academy.

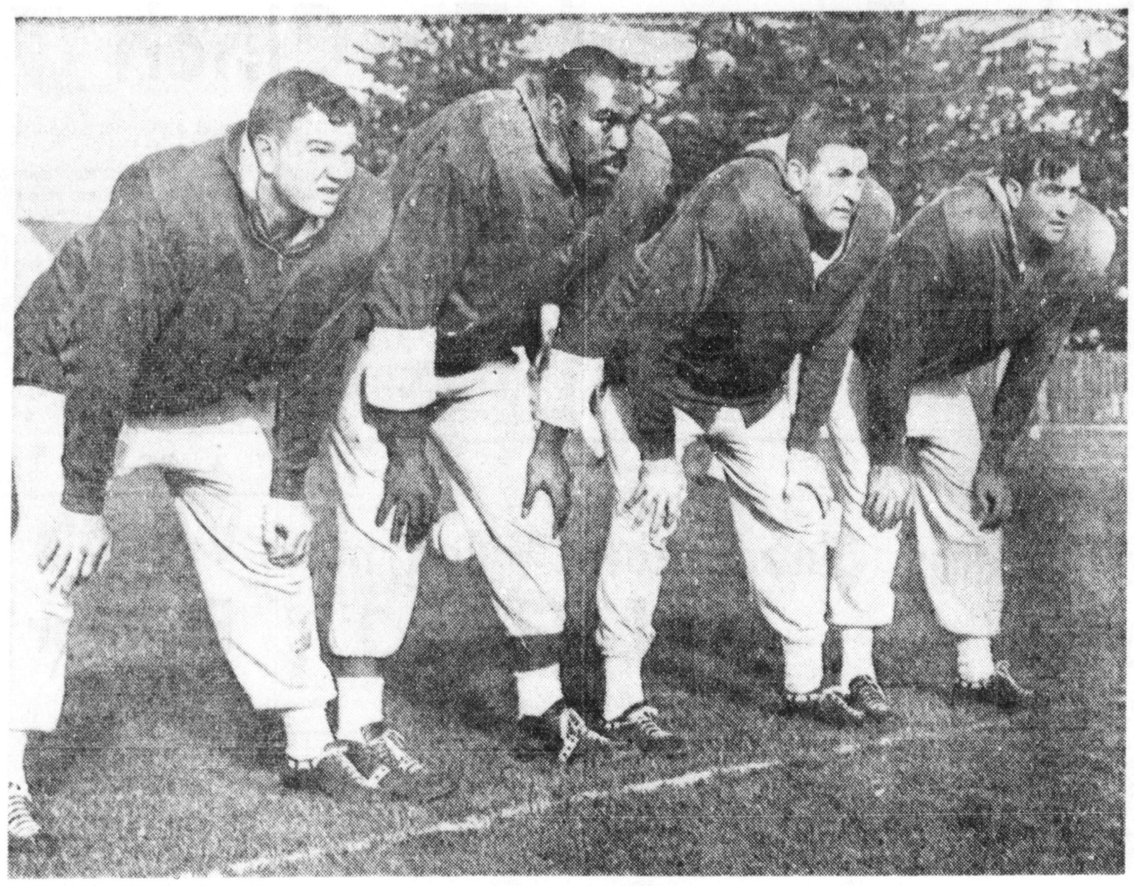
5 Pros Qualify For Crosby Golf

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Five northern California golf professionals, led by George Buzzini of Turlock, qualified yesterday for the Bing Crosby Golf Tournament.

Buzzini shot a 70 to lead a field of 36 pros hoping to compete in the Crosby extravaganza, scheduled for Pebble Beach Jan. 21-24.

Right behind Buzzini at the Lake Merced course were Everett Goulart, Crystal Springs, 72; Bill Fritz, Redding, 73; Sherm Elworthy, San Francisco, 73, and Dick Stranahan, Alameda, 74.

George Bruno, Almaden, and Woody Lamb, Coalinga, who also scored 74's, were named alternates.



COLTS READY TO RAM THE RAMS

Bakersfield Favored In Jr. Rose Bowl

PASADENA (AP)—Two of the top junior college football teams in the nation, Del Mar of Texas and Bakersfield, square off in the 14th annual Junior Rose Bowl Game tomorrow.

The setting is the famed Rose Bowl and the Renegades of Bakersfield, undefeated and untied in nine game, are favored to whip the smaller eleven from Corpus Christi. The Vikings from Texas have an 8-0-1 record.

Some 50,000 fans are anticipated for the kickoff at 1:30 p.m. Good weather was predicted.

Leading the beefy California team are "Jackrabbit Joe" Hernandez, a halfback who scored seven touchdowns on passes this season, and quarterback Bob Ezell, an outstanding thrower.

Del Mar, coached by a former Rice Institute quarterback Vern Glass, counts on fullback Spencer Brown for most of its yardage.

FINALS ON TV TONIGHT

Hot Scramble Seen In Bowling Tourney

CHICAGO (AP)—Today is payoff day in the World Invitational Bowling Tournament and it looks like a dog fight is shaping up for the finish of the nine-day $30,000 10-pin marathon.

As the 16 men finalists start firing their final 16 games of the 64-game head-to-head competition, three of the country's top bowlers were closely bunched at the top.

Leading after 48 games was Bill Golembiewski, of the ABC champions from Detroit. He held onto the top spot he had taken Wednesday although he lost four of his last eight games.

His lead was slim and his closest competitors were seasoned pros, Ray Bluth and Don Carter, both of St. Louis.

Golembiewski's Petersen point total was 240.31 on the strength of 30½ games won and a total pinfall of 10,506. Bluth, ABC masters champion, had 239.33 points with his 30 wines and 10,483 pinfall.

Carter, 1957 world champion and four times all-star titleholder, has 236.27 points. Carter, runnerup in last year's world tourney, vaulted into third place after a poor start both in the qualifying rounds and in the first rounds of match play. He had won 27 of his first 48 games and has knocked down 10,477 pins.

Golembiewski and Bluth split their four-game series yesterday and each split their final two series. Carter wound up his productive day by sweeping four games from George Howard of Detroit with a brilliant 944 series. Carter, who lost 7 of 8 games on opening day of match play, won 11 of 16 yesterday.

The tourney will be nationally televised tonight (7 p.m. PST, NBC) replacing the regular Friday night boxing program.

In the women's division, Donna Zimmerman, 26-year-old Akron, Ohio, office worker, moved into the lead after 12 rounds of shooting. She replaced Olga Gloor of Chicago and led with 113.7 points to 112..39 for the Chicago housewife who had been in the lead since Tuesday.

The women end their shooting today with four two-game matches.

GREAT GLADIATOR

Ex-Boxing Champ Canzoneri Dies

NEW YORK (AP)—Tony Canzoneri, whose flailing fists carried him from a bootblack's box on the sidewalks of New Orleans to boxing's hall of fame, no longer will hold court on his beloved Broadway.

The great little gladiator who won the featherweight, lightweight and junior welterweight was found dead yesterday in a $21-a-week midtown hotel room. Medical authorities said the 51year-old scrapper apparently had died of natural causes two days ago.

When Canzoneri failed to show up for two days at the Broadway restaurant which paid him for the use of his name, a friend, Norman Schwartz, checked the hotel. The ex-champion was found dead lying across a bed, clad in his underwear.

The word quickly spread up and down Broadway.

In front of the restaurant, where Tony held court each night for those who remembered back to the exciting days in the 1920s and early 1930s, many of his friends clustered. They talked in almost hushed tones of the man with the big smile who won 140 fights, lost 24 and drew in 11 and then, after his retirement in 1939, joined comedian Joey Adams in a successful night club act.

Purses were not always big in his days, but Canzoneri earned more than $500,000 with his fists. He met all the top fighters of his time—Johnny Dundee, Benny Bass, Kid Chocolate, Bud Taylor, Lou Ambers, Bushy Graham, Joe Sabgor, Sammy Mandell, Al Singer, Jackie "Kid" Berg, Billy Petrolla, Wes Ramey, Baby Arizmendi, Barney Ross and Jimmy McLarnin.

FAVORITE FIGHT

The fight Canzoneri liked most to talk about was the second of three with Berg for the junior welter crown.

"All you had to do with Berg was move back one step and then let the right go up," said Tony. "I only did one day's road work for the fight because I knew I didn't have to move. I was hitting him too high at first with the right. Then in the third he stepped back and I let go. It landed right and the fight was over.

"But the next time we fought, I couldn't hit him with anything, but I won the decision in 15."

BUCK SHAW TO RETIRE AFTER 1960 SEASON

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League announced today that Coach Lawrence T. "Buck" Shaw has been rehired for the 1960 season.

Terms were not disclosed.

The silver-haired 60-year-old Shaw said he was "indeed happy" to be asked to return. He made it clear, however, he would retire from the coaching profession at the end of the 1960 season. The former Notre Dame star lineman has been coaching since 1922.

Quarterback Norm Van Brocklin would be his likely successor.

"It is a distinct pleasure," Shaw declared, "to return as head coach for the Eagles for the 1960 season which will be my last as a football coach. This 1959 Eagles' team has great potential and is a championship team in the making.

"But more than that, they are a wonderful group of boys and it is my pleasure to coach them. They have tredous spirit and give all they have. No coach can ask for more."

Shaw took over the Eagles in 1958 after nine years as head coach of San Francisco 49ers and two years as mentor of the Air Force Academy.

5 Pros Qualify For Crosby Golf

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Five northern California golf professionals, led by George Buzzini of Turlock, qualified yesterday for the Bing Crosby Golf Tournament.

Buzzini shot a 70 to lead a field of 36 pros hoping to compete in the Crosby extravaganza, scheduled for Pebble Beach Jan. 21-24.

Right behind Buzzini at the Lake Merced course were Everett Goulart, Crystal Springs, 72; Bill Fritz, Redding, 73; Sherm Elworthy, San Francisco, 73, and Dick Stranahan, Alameda, 74.

George Bruno, Almaden, and Woody Lamb, Coalinga, who also scored 74's, were named alternates.

COLTS READY TO RAM THE RAMS

Bakersfield Favored In Jr. Rose Bowl

PASADENA (AP)—Two of the top junior college football teams in the nation, Del Mar of Texas and Bakersfield, square off in the 14th annual Junior Rose Bowl Game tomorrow.

The setting is the famed Rose Bowl and the Renegades of Bakersfield, undefeated and untied in nine game, are favored to whip the smaller eleven from Corpus Christi. The Vikings from Texas have an 8-0-1 record.

Some 50,000 fans are anticipated for the kickoff at 1:30 p.m. Good weather was predicted.

Leading the beefy California team are "Jackrabbit Joe" Hernandez, a halfback who scored seven touchdowns on passes this season. and quarterback Bob Ezell, an outstanding thrower.

With them in the backfield are two power runners, fullback Don Hampton and halfback Cecil Mannings.

Del Mar, coached by a former Rice Institute quarterback Vern Glass, counts on fullback Spencer Brown for most of its yardage.

Hot Scramble Seen In Bowling Tourney

CHICAGO (AP)—Today is payoff day in the World Invitational Bowling Tournament and it looks like a dog fight is shaping up for the finish of the nine-day $30,000 10-pin marathon.

The BULLPEN

With JOHN J. CONNOLLY

Connolly Visits Local Prep Football Banquets—Finds Them Classics

CONNOLLY

As I was saying when interrupted by the Marin County High School Award Banquet Trail, there is nothing wrong with present day athletes. All of 'em are tops in this old observer's mind.

Three successive dinners have I attended, each one in itself a classic.

Marin Catholic High had Abe Woodson, the 49er star defensive back, as its speaker. He laid 'em in the aisles.

Redwood High School had Matt Hazeltine, also of the 49ers, as its principal horn blower. He wowed 'em!

Then came the Drake High aggregation and it had, for the principal speaker of the night, the Ole Bullpen hisself.

Three distinct types of speakers. The first a fleet footed backfield ace, the second a sturdy line backer and the third a guy too old to run and too fat to fight, so he just talked and talked.

But seriously the award dinner for high school players is something more than just a good dinner. It is an idea that as the years roll by will develop into the same importance among high school athletes as the Oscar Awards of Movieland are to actors.

I COULDN'T help but feel the ring of sincerity in the voices of those in charge of the award dinners. It was with deep regard for the players, and parents that the Big Bosses of each school un-curled their hair and spoke with a sincerity that really smacked of appreciation.

When a club goes 20 games without winning, it's pretty hard to compliment them. Yet at the Drake High School dinner I detected a feeling of genuine sportsmanship. The school and the kids got cut up like a hamburger when Drake and Redwood scholars were separated into the north and south areas.

In that shuffle Drake got what was left on the rock. Redwood took all the juicy players in the neighborhood.

AT MARIN Catholic Woodson for two solid hours gave precious advice to the kid footballers. He advised them to participate in other sports such as track and weight lifting.

One sprout in the audience wanted to know why weight lifting and Abe said:

"Jes have about 450 pounds of flesh laying on you, brother, and if you can lift 250 pounds of that up, just for a few moments, it pays you to take up weight lifting."

Hazeltine recalled a clubhouse story before the Cleveland-49er game. He told how Leo Nomellini grabbed the loud speaker from the coach and, with his own story, relieved all the tension of all the players. It was a great yarn told at the right moment and after it, the 49ers relaxed and went out and scored 21 points, enough to win the game.

THE OL' BULLPENNER could only explain to the Drake players that they should never have an inferior complex.

"Oldtimers in sports, never were as good as present day athletes," he said.

"Ernie Nevers and Brick Muller, two of the greatest in California football history, regard the present day football so highly, that both of them say 'we couldn't have made the teams'."

But take it from this old observer, there is nothing wrong with Marin County High School football or Marin County athletics in general.

It is run by devoted men, devoted coaches and by scholarly heads of institutions of learning who really are boyish looking and boyish in their ideas of sports.

And last, but not least, the parents of high school players are a living example of unselfishness. They not only support the players, feed 'em, cuddle them, but also pay the freight

FOOTBALL RULES POLL

Scribes Say Colleges Should Copy The Pros

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The men who watch the game from the press box think college football should copy the professionals.

Colleges should put the goal posts on the goal-line and return to the free-substitution rule, these observers said emphatically in The Associated Press's post-season football poll.

Queries about current and proposed rules, the nation's sports writers and broadcasters were almost solid in their dissatisfaction with college standards.

Of the 166 who expressed opinions in the poll tabulated today, 12 said colleges should go back to the two-platoon system and unlimited substitutions.

Only slightly fewer—108—said the goal posts should be put on the goal line, as the pros have it.

Under present rules, a player may re-enter the game only once during a quarter, but there is provision for specialists to be shuttled in and out when the clock is stopped under a so-called "wild card rule," tried for the first time this year.

Asked about the effectiveness of the "wild card" rule, the voters replied—10 to 1—that they were in favor of it if limited substitution could not be achieved. A few said they noted little difference.

Queries on the suggestion that there be a five-year moratorium on tampering with college rules, the voters were divided. But two-thirds of them said, "No."

BOWLING

Veteran pin-smasher Elmer Tynes of the Luana's Fashions team caught fire Wednesday night at Country Club Lanes and rolled a 631 series in the Mixed Foursome League. Tynes lines were 201, 205 and 225, in that order.

Walt Hammerman was second with a 554 total on games of 186, 212 and 156.

Leading the women was Avis DeCleur, 161-149-140—450.

Team results and high scorers: Clay's Barber Shop (P. Scofield, 500) d. Continental Handbag (Bob Abney, 404) by 4-0; Sea Food Gardens of Marin (Joe DeCleur, 500) d. Minimax (Marv Prior, 470) by 3-1; Redwood Motors (Walt Hammerman, 554) d. Luana's (Tynes, 631) by 4-0; Van Doyle Furniture (Pat Myers, 466) d. Redwood Chapel (Dick Alcorn, 398) by 3-1; The Low Bowlers (Rich Schultz, 414) d. Flamingo Liquors (Bob Botti, 507) by 3-1; Harbour Place (Jack Farrar, 478) tied Suburan Motors (Bill Donnelly, 478) 2-2.

IN THE Koch of California League at Greenbrae Lanes this week Sam Pillus fired a nifty 608 on games of 213, 212 and 183. Nick Nacca was second with 541 and Mac Koch third at 499.

The BULLPEN

With JOHN J. CONNOLLY

Connolly Visits Local Prep Football Banquets—Finds Them Classics

CONNOLLY

As I was saying when interrupted by the Marin County High School Award Banquet Trail, there is nothing wrong with present day athletes. All of 'em are tops in this old observer's mind.

Three successive dinners have I attended, each one in itself a classic.

Marin Catholic High had Abe Woodson, the 49er star defensive back, as its speaker. He laid 'em in the aisles.

Redwood High School had Matt Hazeltine, also of the 49ers, as its principal horn blower. He wowed 'em!

Then came the Drake High aggregation and it had, for the principal speaker of the night, the Ole Bullpen hisself.

Three distinct types of speakers. The first a fleet footed backfield ace, the second a sturdy line backer and the third a guy too old to run and too fat to fight, so he just talked and talked.

But seriously the award dinner for high school players is something more than just a good dinner. It is an idea that as the years roll by will develop into the same importance among high school athletes as the Oscar Awards of Movieland are to actors.

I COULDN'T help but feel the ring of sincerity in the voices of those in charge of the award dinners. It was with deep regard for the players, and parents that the Big Bosses of each school un-curled their hair and spoke with a sincerity that really smacked of appreciation.

When a club goes 20 games without winning, it's pretty hard to compliment them. Yet at the Drake High School dinner I detected a feeling of genuine sportsmanship. The school and the kids got cut up like a hamburger when Drake and Redwood scholars were separated into the north and south areas.

In that shuffle Drake got what was left on the rock. Redwood took all the juicy players in the neighborhood.

AT MARIN Catholic Woodson for two solid hours gave precious advice to the kid footballers. He advised them to participate in other sports such as track and weight lifting.

One sprout in the audience wanted to know why weight lifting and Abe said:

"Jes have about 450 pounds of flesh laying on you, brother, and if you can lift 250 pounds of that up, just for a few moments, it pays you to take up weight lifting."

Hazeltine recalled a clubhouse story before the Cleveland-49er game. He told how Leo Nomellini grabbed the loud speaker from the coach and, with his own story, relieved all the tension of all the players. It was a great yarn told at the right moment and after it, the 49ers relaxed and went out and scored 21 points, enough to win the game.

THE OL' BULLPENNER could only explain to the Drake players that they should never have an inferior complex.

"Oldtimers in sports, never were as good as present day athletes," he said.

"Ernie Nevers and Brick Muller, two of the greatest in California football history, regard the present day football so highly, that both of them say 'we couldn't have made the teams'."

But take it from this old observer, there is nothing wrong with Marin County High School football or Marin County athletics in general.

It is run by devoted men, devoted coaches and by scholarly heads of institutions of learning who really are boyish looking and boyish in their ideas of sports.

And last, but not least, the parents of high school players are a living example of unselfishness. They not only support the players, feed 'em, cuddle them, but also pay the freight

FOOTBALL RULES POLL

Scribes Say Colleges Should Copy The Pros

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The men who watch the game from the press box think college football should copy the professionals.

Colleges should put the goal posts on the goal-line and return to the free-substitution rule, these observers said emphatically in The Associated Press's post-season football poll.

Queries about current and proposed rules, the nation's sports writers and broadcasters were almost solid in their dissatisfaction with college standards.

Of the 166 who expressed opinions in the poll tabulated today, 12 said colleges should go back to the two-platoon system and unlimited substitutions.

Only slightly fewer—108—said the goal posts should be put on the goal line, as the pros have it.

Under present rules, a player may re-enter the game only once during a quarter, but there is provision for specialists to be shuttled in and out when the clock is stopped under a so-called "wild card rule," tried for the first time this year.

Asked about the effectiveness of the "wild card" rule, the voters replied—10 to 1—that they were in favor of it if limited substitution could not be achieved. A few said they noted little difference.

Queries on the suggestion that there be a five-year moratorium on tampering with college rules, the voters were divided. But two-thirds of them said, "No."

BOWLING

Veteran pin-smasher Elmer Tynes of the Luana's Fashions team caught fire Wednesday night at Country Club Lanes and rolled a 631 series in the Mixed Foursome League. Tynes lines were 201, 205 and 225, in that order.

Walt Hammerman was second with a 554 total on games of 186, 212 and 156.

Leading the women was Avis DeCleur, 161-149-140—450.

Team results and high scorers: Clay's Barber Shop (P. Scofield, 500) d. Continental Handbag (Bob Abney, 404) by 4-0; Sea Food Gardens of Marin (Joe DeCleur, 500) d. Minimax (Marv Prior, 470) by 3-1; Redwood Motors (Walt Hammerman, 554) d. Luana's (Tynes, 631) by 4-0; Van Doyle Furniture (Pat Myers, 466) d. Redwood Chapel (Dick Alcorn, 398) by 3-1; The Low Bowlers (Rich Schultz, 414) d. Flamingo Liquors (Bob Botti, 507) by 3-1; Harbour Place (Jack Farrar, 478) tied Suburan Motors (Bill Donnelly, 478) 2-2.

IN THE Koch of California League at Greenbrae Lanes this week Sam Pillus fired a nifty 608 on games of 213, 212 and 183. Nick Nacca was second with 541 and Mac Koch third at 499.

SANTA NEEDS NO WORDS

Nancy Fishbein, 4-year-old deaf pupil at New Jersey's state school for the deaf at Trenton, gets the message from Santa Claus although she can't hear a word. Nancy has been taught to read lips and interpret conversation by placing her hand near the larynx of the person talking. She was one of 25 children from the school who helped Santa, in the person of 70 year-old William Hayes, open the Christmas display at a local department store. (AP Wirephoto)

CHRISTMAS SALES MAY SET RECORD

More Money, Stable Prices, Easier Credit Spur Spending Across Nation

NEW YORK (AP)—People have more money to spend and they're spending it for Christmas.

That's the report today from almost every section of the country as merchants ring up sales which they expect will be the biggest for any yule season in history.

An Associated Press survey of 24 major cities produced predictions of gains ranging from 2 to 15 per cent over record 1958.

"It's going to be a crackerjack of a Christmas," was the report from San Francisco.

"Department store sales are really rolling" Cleveland reports.

"This will be our biggest year," says Raleigh, N. C., merchants.

"Exceptionally good," report New York's biggest stores.

Merchants say the steel strike has had little effect generally on Christmas buying.

Store owners attribute the avalanche of buying to these factors: People earned more and saved more in 1959; prices are unchanged to only slightly higher than a year ago; credit is easier.

Credit cards spurred buying in Los Angeles. "At least the woman of the house thinks she has more money," said a department store official.

Shoppers are snapping up high-priced luxury items.

"The big price tag doesn't scare them anymore. They are more concerned with fashion and quality," says a St. Louis merchant.

Miami, Fla., reported a strong demand for furs and $40 sweaters. An Indianapolis store had to reorder $100 suede jacekts. In a North Carolina city, $25 electric can openers are going good.

Shoppers are showing a practical side, too. "If you have a good bargain and they realize it, they grab the stuff like hotcakes," says a woman's apparel shop owner in Kansas City.

The hot item in toys this year is a 36-inch doll that can be dressed in a 3-year-old girl's clothes. For boys the big attractions are space age toys.

Two cities ran into strikes which crimped shopping activity to some extent. In Portland, Ore., a strike against two newspapers caused them to publish combined issues with limited advertising. Merchants reported advertised items sold well but that others did not.

A bus-trolley strike tied up most of Pittsburgh's mass transit. Downtown department stores offered shopping service by phone and mail and expected their suburban branches to make up losses.

KARLSRUHE, Germany (UPI)—West Germany has smashed a vast Communist spy ring, the government revealed today.

Store Till Looted In Corte Madera

A tall, slender man stole about $150 from the cash register in a Corte Madera market last night while his woman companion engaged the owner in a conversation about the sweetness of wine, police reported.

The theft at 5:50 p.m. was reported by Mario Schenone, owner of the Parkside Market at 12 Tamalpais drive.

Schenone told Inspector Harold Hockett the woman entered first. While he was talking to her, the man walked in and took all the $10 and $20 bills from the register. Schenone said both were Negroes.

Novato Club Plans Many Activities

November was a busy month for the Novato Squares Dance Club.

Club caller Bill Owen was presented a cake and a gift in honor of his birthday. As a gag, the club planned a joke to try to foul up the caller. At a pre-selected time, regardless of what Bill was calling, everyone danced the "Grand Square." However, instead of being disturbed at all, "Iron-nerve Bill" continued merrily with what he was calling, never missing a beat, to prove that after all, he, the caller, was master. The same evening, club members Milt and Lenna Matz were celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary. They were presented with a cake and money tree.

Many Novato Squares members plan to journey to Occidental to the Marin Crockets' Christmas party Dec. 12.

Plans are presently under way for a Santa Claus Christmas party for children of Novato Squares members and for a special New Year's Eve party.

Milt and Lenna Matz have been appointed co-chairmen for the gigantic Novato Squares March of Dimes Benefit Square Dance (annual affair) for which all goods and services are donated or paid for by the club and all proceeds donated to the March of Dimes.

The dance this year will be held on Saturday, Jan. 30 at the Marion School, Novato, from 8:30 to midnight. Refreshments will be served. Bill Owen will be caller.

OWC Greets 6 Newcomers

The Hamilton Air Force Base Officers' Wives Club recent "Hye and Bye" Coffee at the Officers' Club was the occasion for greeting six newcomers and two guests and also, not having to "bye" to anyone.

Mrs. Richard Tompkins, welcome chairman and Mrs. Joe Lyle, Jr., OWC president, performed the welcoming honors.

Centered on the serving table was a pink new flower Christmas tree with pink tapers on each side. Decorating the piano was a styrofoam "choir loft" of white and gold.

And the third decorative item was a red and white bell tree adorning the coffee table.

Welcome committee members are, in addition to Mrs. Tompkins, Mesdames Lou Griffith, James Kleckner, James Hare and John Carter.

Other newcomers and guests were Mesdames Charles Koll, Fred Gruette and Merle Nichols and Mrs. R. A. Corley, mother of Mrs. William Murphy and Mrs. S. S. Mullen, mother of Mrs. Nichols.

Derby To Turban Is Chapeau Range At Guild Show

Hats that ranged in style from a perky derby in rose velours, a filmy pouf of black net, tiny bows and French feathers or a smooth turban of delicately shaded brown folds were program highlights of Wednesday evening's meeting of St. Raphael's Mothers' Guild.

Eleven members of the group were the models for the chapeau fashion show which preceded a demonstration of hat creation and design by Welton Meeks, local designer and teacher. To illustrate points of his discussion, Mr. Meeks fashioned a side-draped blue felt turban for Mrs. J. F. Healy, who had been selected from the audience to serve as model for the demonstration.

During the short business period prior to the program, Mrs. David Vattuone, guild president, announced the appointment of Mrs. Henry F. Catala as general chairman of the Italian dinner scheduled for Feb. 21.

Special mention was also made of the current "Gifts for the Christ Child" project, sponsored by the National Council of Catholic Women, to which guild members contribute new infant clothing, layette materials or money. At a meeting of the Marin Folk Dance Council last week final arrangements were made for the annual Karlstad Ball to be held again this year at the Masonic Hall, Fourth and Lootens place, in San Rafael on New Year's Eve.

All of the folk dance clubs in Marin join together to give this gala event, and the proceeds are used to cover expenses of the outdoor festival held every July in Kentfield. Mrs. Edna Pixley and Mrs. Allen Young of the Sausalito Step-Togethers are in charge of the midnight supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Les Hennessey of the Marin Whirlaways are in charge of the decorations. They report the theme will be clocks, in honor of the all-important hour of midnight. Wintheiser is a very popular caller in the Bay Area as well as being a member of the Oakland Recreation Dance Arts exhibition group, which is well known for its contribution to folk dancing.

This is the big event for folk dancers who like to wear international costumes. Most folk dancers take pride in making their own costumes and, thanks to extensive research Mrs. Les Hennessey has been doing on international costumes, this promises to be the best costume Karlstad Ball. Through her inspiration, the women have been doing real hand embroidery in authentic designs. Their costumes show real talent and old world charm.

Camp Fire Mint Sale Date Set

At the recent executive board meeting of the Marin County Council of Camp Fire Girls a unanimous decision was reached to sell candy mints at the Camp Fire Annual Sale in February.

Because little girls would rather sell candy, because little girls would rather eat candy; because most adults prefer to buy candy rather than peanuts, which have been sold the past two years; and because all of the 11 Bay Area Councils of Camp Fire Girls will be selling mints there is a high anticipation of a most successful Annual Sale.

Camp Fire mints, packaged in an exclusive Camp Fire Girl box, is the product that all Camp Fire, Blue Bird and Horizon Girls will be selling for Valentines Day, for two weeks before and one week after.

Mrs. Robin Gallaway, president of the Marin Camp Fire Council, has asked Mrs. Robert Oates of San Anselmo to be county chairman for the sale. Mrs. Oates is working with a steering committee headed by Mrs. Frank Boyer, Mrs. Robert Houston and Mrs. Glen Wentz. The committee has divided the county into five districts, each of which will have a Mint chairman to be named at a later date.

Mrs. Joel Nemschoff will work with the Bay Area co-ordinating committee on public relations. Miss Mary Falls of Berkeley is chairman of the Bay Area co-ordinating commitee, which will have representatives from all the 11 councils.

MR. AND MRS. Charles Edward Myers are pictured following their recent wedding at the First Presbyterian Church in San Anselmo. The bride, the former Carol Lee Hall, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn L. Hall of Novato. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce E. Myers of Los Gatos.

Twin Cities Auxiliary Unit To Host Yountville Party

All 62 women veterans at the Veterans Home of California in Yountville will be hosted to a Christmas party and gift exchange by the member of Twin Cities Unit 313 of the American Legion Auxiliary this month.

Following the Christmas carol singing at the Barracks H Recreation Hall, each of the women veterans will receive a gaily wrapped cosmetic item. A tea hour will also be hosted by Twin Cities Auxiliary volunteers. Participating in the recent wrapping session held at the home of Mrs. Bryce Florence of Larkspur were Mesdames Maurine Lynch, Edwin Olmstead, Florence and Francis Fugate.

Hospitalized veterans in 174 Veterans Administration hospitals and in 292 other hospitals where veterans are under care will be remembered by Auxiliary units throughout the United States in carrying out their major program of veteran rehabilitation.

Marin units of the Auxiliary in San Anselmo, Mill Valley, Bolinas and Larkspur are providing donations for the Palo Alto Gift Shop program where veterans may select gifts for their families free of charge.

More than 2100 veterans at the Veterans Home of California will also be remembered with bags of fruit and cigarettes. Wards, hospital rooms and recreation halls at the Home's hospital will be gaily decorated with greenery and holiday baubles by various units in District 5 which also embraces Marin County's nearly 400 American Legion Auxiliary members.

Theatre Benefit

The San Francisco Bay Area Vassar Club is announcing a Theater Benefit to raise money for its scholarship fund and has been able to obtain the opening night of Maurice Chevalier at the Curran Theater on February 9.

Chairman of the event is Mrs. Clark Maser, who is fund raising chairman for the club. Mrs. Jonn H. Ross is in charge of tickets, Mrs. Elliot McAllister is in charge of sponsors, and Mrs. Aime Michaud is in charge of publicity. Representative for the benefit in Marin is Mrs. James McNab.

Visit Mrs. Gravender

The third grade of Belvedere School last week visited Grandma Gravender, well-known resident of Mill Valley as part of its study of Christmas customs in other lands.

Their hostess baked Swedish ccokies, demonstrated weaving and told them stories. Mrs. Bertha Bedilion is the teacher. Transportation for the 24 pupils was provided by the mothers.

Coffee Stains

Te remove coffee stains on cotton or linen, pour boiling water through the stain or soak in warm water. Wash, and treat remaining stains by bleaching. Sponge with cleaning fluid if the coffee contained cream. For silk, wool, rayon, nylon or other synthetic fabrics, follow the procedure for cotton, but substitute a mild powdered bleach for the strong liquid type.

Top Trend

The cloth hat is a top trend in men's headgear. The National Cap and Cloth Hat Institute, reporting heavy ordering, says cloth hats are made of material rather than of felt. They come in cotton, wool, silk, madras, poplin, flannel and Dacron. Behind the boom, according to the Institute, is the fact that "cloth hats are more dashing."

NEW HEALTH DISCOVERIES of famous biochemists & nutritional scientists

This Lady Has Answers To Good Health
Mrs. Nell Sutcliff, well-known Nutritionist, will be in our store Dec. 7 through Dec. 24. You are cordially invited to visit us and learn about new nutritional discoveries.

LEG CRAMPS?
Uncomfortable leg cramps can be the result of calcium deficiency, and dietary authorities recommend phosphorous-free calcium to control this condition. New scientific evidence shows that calcium and phosphorous should not be combined in one tablet, because phosphorous interferes with the body's absorption of calcium. Ask Mrs. Sutcliff to tell you about DYNA-CAL—the phosphorous-free calcium product—with vitamins C and D, and a special ingredient that helps to put calcium into the blood stream quicker—bringing prompt relief to cramping, calcium-starved muscles.

• POOR DIGESTION—"DYSPEPSIA"—"HEARTBURN"
Ask Mrs. Sutcliff about digestive enzymes—how they can help you stop uncomfortable symptoms of indigestion—cramps, bloating and flatulence. The DYNA-ZYME Digestive Food Supplement aids in the digestion of not one, but all three kinds of food—fat, protein and carbohydrates.

• "REGULARITY" WITHOUT LAXATIVES
Science has discovered a new, non-laxative treatment for "dry" constipation. Not a cathartic—not a "bulk" laxative—HYDREX is an organic substance in tablet form which keeps hard, dry fecal matter soft for easy passage by permeating it with the moisture it should normally have. Non-habit forming HYDREX does not force bowel movement. It allows normal evacuation by simple, non-laxative, "moistage" action. Mrs. Sutcliff will explain.

• NON-DRUG RELIEF FROM NERVOUS TENSION
Nervous tension—anxiety—worry—sleeplessness. There's hardly one of us who doesn't occasionally feel the stress of living in this fast-moving modern day and age. Mrs. Sutcliff can tell you about a natural, harmless, non-toxic and non-habit forming herbal calmative and relaxant which brings relief from taut nerves during the day and insomnia at night. Ask her about LULL.

"INTESTINAL CONDITIONING"
In our modern-day living there are many threats to the normal functioning of the intestinal tract. As a natural "intestinal conditioner," protopectin acts in 7 different ways to aid in the normal functioning of the gastrointesinal tract. Ask Mrs. Sutcliff for full information about CITRI-MEAT.

NEW LIFE IN OLD BLOOD—FAST
A group of scientists at Johns Hopkins University have made the amazing discovery that a simple, natural food substance—sorbitol—found in fruit, when taken with vitamin B-12 and iron, greatly increases the absorption of these nutrients—gets them into the blood stream almost as quickly as "shots" by hypodermic needle. This newly discovered "absorption enhancement factor" makes it possible to use less iron which, in large doses, often causes irritation, nausea, "after-taste," and constipation. Mrs. Sutcliff will tell you more about sorbitol and HEMO-TONIC.

High-Twelvettes Christmas Party To Be Held Dec. 16

High-Twelvettes of Marin will hold their annual Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Carl Weber, San Rafael on Dec. 16. Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock, after which Christmas gifts will be exchanged.

At this party members of High-Twelvettes will bring canned and packaged foods to add to the Christmas dinner of turkey and all the trimmings given each year to a needy family in Southern Marin. Food for the holiday season and far into the new year is supplied. A Christmas tree, and gifts for the children and adults is brought to the family on Dec. 24th. New shoes are bought for each child in the family.

Contact is kept with the family so more assistance is available if necessary. This is one of the many projects of the High-Twelvettes each year.

At a luncheon, recently, at the Meadow Club Mrs. E. A. Peters gave a talk on her recent travels in Europe. Pictures were shown to highlight the talk.

At the November business meeting of High-Twelvettes, held at the home of Mrs. William Gropius of Ross Mrs. Glen Wentz of San Anselmo was initiated into High-Twelvettes. The following new slate of officers for 1960 was elected: Mrs. Jorgen Pedersen, president; Mrs. Herbert McKenney, vice president; Mrs. Clifford Archer, recording secretary; Mrs. George W. Zang, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Robert Elder, chaplain, and Mrs. Edward A. Peters, sentinel.

On Saturday at 2 p.m., High-Twelvettes of Marin will be hostesses at Guide Dog Graduation Day.

Coffee Stains

Te remove coffee stains on cotton or linen, pour boiling water through the stain or soak in warm water. Wash, and treat remaining stains by bleaching. Sponge with cleaning fluid if the coffee contained cream. For silk, wool, rayon, nylon or other synthetic fabrics, follow the procedure for cotton, but substitute a mild powdered bleach for the strong liquid type.

Top Trend

The cloth hat is a top trend in men's headgear. The National Cap and Cloth Hat Institute, reporting heavy ordering, says cloth hats are made of material rather than of felt. They come in cotton, wool, silk, madras, poplin, flannel and Dacron. Behind the boom, according to the Institute, is the fact that "cloth hats are more dashing."

TWO MARIN COUPLES vacationing at the El Mirador Hotel in Palm Springs are Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Field of Tiburon, left, in the hotel gardens and, right, Mr. and Mrs. Milton H. Poppett of San Rafael, who are seen in the veranda cafe.

Twin Cities Auxiliary Unit To Host Yountville Party

All 62 women veterans at the Veterans Home of California in Yountville will be hosted to a Christmas party and gift exchange by the member of Twin Cities Unit 313 of the American Legion Auxiliary this month.

Following the Christmas carol singing at the Barracks H Recreation Hall, each of the women veterans will receive a gaily wrapped cosmetic item. A tea hour will also be hosted by Twin Cities Auxiliary volunteers. Participating in the recent wrapping session held at the home of Mrs. Bryce Florence of Larkspur were Mesdames Maurine Lynch, Edwin Olmstead, Florence and Francis Fugate.

Hospitalized veterans in 174 Veterans Administration hospitals and in 292 other hospitals where veterans are under care will be remembered by Auxiliary units throughout the United States in carrying out their major program of veteran rehabilitation.

Marin units of the Auxiliary in San Anselmo, Mill Valley, Bolinas and Larkspur are providing donations for the Palo Alto Gift Shop program where veterans may select gifts for their families free of charge.

More than 2100 veterans at the Veterans Home of California will also be remembered with bags of fruit and cigarettes. Wards, hospital rooms and recreation halls at the Home's hospital will be gaily decorated with greenery and holiday baubles by various units in District 5 which also embraces Marin County's nearly 400 American Legion Auxiliary members.

Theatre Benefit

The San Francisco Bay Area Vassar Club is announcing a Theater Benefit to raise money for its scholarship fund and has been able to obtain the opening night of Maurice Chevalier at the Curran Theater on February 9.

Chairman of the event is Mrs. Clark Maser, who is fund raising chairman for the club. Mrs. John H. Ross is in charge of tickets, Mrs. Elliot McAllister is in charge of sponsors, and Mrs. Aime Michaud is in charge of publicity. Representative for the benefit in Marin is Mrs. James McNab.

Visit Mrs. Gravender

The third grade of Belvedere School last week visited Grandma Gravender, well-known resident of Mill Valley as part of its study of Christmas customs in other lands.

Their hostess baked Swedish ccokies, demonstrated weaving and told them stories. Mrs. Bertha Bedilion is the teacher. Transportation for the 24 pupils was provided by the mothers.

Sausalito Planners Consider Permit For Restaurant

The Sausalito Planning Commission has set Jan. 13 as the date for a public hearing on request by Bob Rose of Parkway Associates, for use permits for a restaurant, cocktail lounge and gift shop in the restaurant behind the Sausalito Hotel.

He also is requesting use permits for installation of craft shops in the old Post Office which is part of the hotel building.

In connection with these shops he is asking a variance—that the offstreet parking requirement be waived. In return he would close off El Portal street and develop it into a pedestrian mall.

He recently presented the city council with the plan, and was referred to the planners.

BARGAINS IN ART FOR CHRISTMAS

Forty artists and craftsmen, members of the Marin Society of Artists, are exhibiting and selling their works at the society's Christmas sale at the Frances Young Gallery of the Marin Art and Garden Center in Ross. Above, artist Barbara Melchior demonstrates technique of making "torn-outs," suitable for unusual Christmas greetings.

DO YOU LIKE MY PICTURE? — Billy Porter, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Porter of San Rafael, sat for his portrait by Elizabeth Vreeland, one of 40 Marin artists participating in show and sale at Art and Garden Center. She shyly offers the result for photographer's inspection.

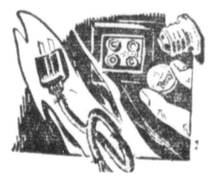
The Newsprint Information Committee expects American newspapers to use a record seven million tons of newsprint in 1959. The previous high was 6,899,000 tons in 1956.

How safe is your wiring?



IF you are living in a house wired years ago
IF you have added extra appliances year after year
IF old switches have long passed their endurance time. The entire wiring is no safer than the weakest switch

Sausalito Planners Consider Permit For Restaurant

The Sausalito Planning Commission has set Jan. 13 as the date for a public hearing on request by Bob Rose of Parkway Associates, for use permits for a restaurant, cocktail lounge and gift shop in the restaurant behind the Sausalito Hotel.

He also is requesting use permits for installation of craft shops in the old Post Office which is part of the hotel building.

In connection with these shops he is asking a variance—that the offstreet parking requirement be waived. In return he would close off El Portal street and develop it into a pedestrian mall.

He recently presented the city council with the plan, and was referred to the planners.

BARGAINS IN ART FOR CHRISTMAS

7-Period Day Plan Suggested For Schools In Tam District

An optional seven-period day for Redwood, Tamalpais and Sir Francis Drake High Schools is suggested in a five-point plan now under study by teachers of Tamalpais Union High School District.

The proposal was drawn up by the school day committee of the district curriculum council after 13 months of study.

Details are contained in a 12-page report to the faculty by Robert D. Torey, district director of curriculum. The plan contains these points:

"1. Each school shall be organized into a seven-period day, the first period of each day to be optional for students.

"2. Any subject which is a part of the regular curriculum may be offered during the first period if there is sufficient advance signup.

"3. Class periods will remain at 55 minutes in length, and the school day will therefore extend from 8 a. m. to 3:30 p. m.

"4. Sufficient additional teachers shall be employed so that average class size will not increase, and the average number of teacher-student contacts each day shall not increase.

"5. All teachers would be at the school for the full seven periods, but no teacher should teach more classes each day than under the present (six-period) schedule."

Torrey's report said many Tam district students, particularly those preparing for college, now have little opportunity to sample the "wide range of offerings" available.

This year, 140 students at the three schools are taking early-period courses under an experimental program. The classes start at 7:30 a. m., one hour before the regular school day begins.

The proposed reorganization, said Torrey, would be for students with "genuine interest in enriching their program and who have the ability to handle the additional work." Less academic students, the study committee feels, should be discouraged or forbidden from enrolling for seven periods, the report declared.

It said it is difficult to estimate how many students would be involved in such a program, but "experience in other districts suggests a maximum of 50 per cent."

Torrey said committee members agreed more students would have enrolled in the experimental program this year if a wider range of courses had been offered.

The report said that if 50 per cent of the students enrolled in the proposed first period class, four additional teachers would be required at each school, at a salary cost exceeding $84,000.

Legal Fight On Dam May Wind Up Today

Several Nicasio ranch owners are fighting the proposed Nicasio Dam on grounds the Marin Municipal Water District has other ample sources of water instead of taking 1,700 acres of their dairy land.

The legal battle is being heard before Judge Raymond Sherwin of Solano County, sitting in Marin Superior Court. The case is expected to wind up by this evening.

If the Marin Municipal Water District loses this case, it could mean the end of the proposed Nicasio Dam and lake, which water district officials expect to double the district's reservoir capacity.

Attorney Samuel W. Gardiner represents the water district.

Attorney John H. Painter of Ross, representing the ranch owners, argues that the water district has looked only in this area for a dam site and has ignored other possibilities.

"They can get adequate water from the Coyote Dam in the Russian River area," Painter declared. "There is plenty of water available."

Painter pointed out that all of his clients have ranches lying outside Marin Municipal Water District. If they were within the district, its right to condemn the land would be conclusive. However, in this case, the judge must decide whether the district can condemn, by weighing the question of harm to the land owners as against the public good that the dam would bring.

If the water district wins the case, the next step would be condemnation to set a value on the land to be taken.

Ranch owners protesting include Ed Gallagher, who has two ranches; Arnold, Albino and Charles Dolcini; Lydia Respini; estate of Zelma LaFranchi; Fred La Franchi; Florence E. Knecht and the estate of Mabel Burdell Lichtenberg.

There are about 70 summer cottages and homes in the Nicasio watershed, and at least 19 ranches, Painter noted. If Nicasio dam and lake were built, restrictions would be placed on the residents, and the value of their ranches greatly depreciated, he declared. For example, restrictions would be placed on septic tanks serving homes, and manure fertilization of grazing land.

DRIVING CHAMP ARRESTED FOR BUM DRIVING

BEDFORD, Ind. (UPI)—A 17-year-old youth who won a $500 scholarship last spring as Indiana state champion teen-age driver has been arrested on a charge of driving 100 miles an hour.

State police arrested John Scott, Bedford, on U. S. 50 east of here. He has until Dec. 26 to appear in court.

In Indianapolis, the question of whether Scott's $500 scholarship would be endangered by the speeding ticket went unanswered. The award was made by the Indiana Junior Chamber of Commerce which annually sponsors a teen-age "road-e-o" contest.

Fairfax Christmas Lights To Go On

Christmas lights will be turned on in the Fairfax parkade today at 7 p.m., the nounced.

Santa Claus will have toys and candy for children at the party, sponsored by the city and the merchants, said Mrs. Evelyn Benson, secretary of the merchants association.

An estimated 10 per cent of the population of the United States have chronic ailments that limit their activities.

Official Trips Costing State A Tidy Sum

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Junketing state officials are costing the state about $700,000 this year.

With the year about over, that's how much the travel and related expense claims have amounted to for 1,846 official trips. All out-of-state travel must be approved by the governor.

The expense total, of course, doesn't include the governor's own trips. The extent of Gov. Edmund G. Brown's junketing is indicated by the trips authorized for this travel secretary, Richard Tuck.

Tuck has been to Carson City, Nev., Washington, Puerto Rico, Sun Valley and New York this year.

Dr. Malcolm H. Merrill, state director of public health, was one of the best traveled officials. He averaged an out-of-state trip a month, but five of them were of no cost to the state.

The Department of Education ran up the biggest travel bill—$53,975 for 225 trips. In addition, educators made 450 other trips which cost the state nothing.

The expense total, of course, doesn't include the governor's own trips. The extent of Gov. Edmund G. Brown's junketing is indicated by the trips authorized for this travel secretary, Richard Tuck.

Tuck has been to Carson City, Nev., Washington, Puerto Rico, Sun Valley and New York this year.

Dr. Malcolm H. Merrill, state director of public health, was one of the best traveled officials. He averaged an out-of-state trip a month, but five of them were of no cost to the state.

The Department of Education ran up the biggest travel bill—$53,975 for 225 trips. In addition, educators made 450 other trips which cost the state nothing.
